Draft amendments.

(1) To rule 8 of the said rules add the following note:—

"Note.—Fees and other realisations in respect of any waterworks or its depreciation fund shall not be utilised except for purposes of the same waterworks."

(2) In rule 26 of the said rules re-number clauses (b) and (c) as clauses (c) and (d), respectively, and insert the following as clause (b):—

"(b) by a schedule in Form No. 2B containing full details of the estimates for waterworks, if any. If there are more than one waterworks, a separate schedule shall be prepared for each.'

(3) After rule 61 of the said rules insert the following:—

Waterworks.

61A. A subsidiary account shall be kept separately in respect of the receipts and expenditure pertaining to each waterworks. The account shall be kept in a manuscript form in which the monthly receipts and expenditure under each of the minor and detailed heads appearing under the major head "waterworks" in Budget Form No. 1 shall be posted separately. Loans received for the purpose of the waterworks, interest on endowments, repayment of loans, interest paid on loans as well as a suitable share of general establishment and other charges shall also be posted in this account. The account shall be closed monthly and the balance shall be carried over as the opening balance for the following month.

Waterworks Depreciation Account.

61B. (1) When a waterworks is maintained by a district board, the board shall make an annual contribution to an account called the Waterworks Depreciation Account for defraying the cost of renewal of parts of the plant, which are liable to rapid deterioration, detailed in sub-rule (2).

(2) For the purpose of this rule, the average life of parts of a plant shall be calculated from the assumed lives of the items mentioned below:—

	Years.
Small light oil engines ...	8
Light engines of bigger size ...	12
Crude oil heavy engines ...	20
Light high speed steam engines ...	15
Heavy high speed steam engines ...	20
Heavy slow speed steam engines ...	30
Light reciprocating pumps ...	15
Heavy reciprocating pumps ...	30
Small high speed centrifugal pumps	15
Large high speed centrifugal pumps	20
Slow speed centrifugal pumps ...	25
Lancashire or Cornish boilers ...	30
Small tubular boilers ...	15
Steel filter shells ...	20
Tube wells ...	10
Electric motors ...	20
Mechanical filter parts ...	15

(3) The average life of a plant shall calculated in the following manner:

Example.—Suppose a district board has plant mentioned below:—

Plant.	Cost.	Life in years.
	Rs.		Rs.
(a) Heavy oil engines ..	6,210	× 20	=1,24,200
(b) Centrifugal pumps ..	3,417	× 25	=85,425
(c) Filter parts (including Chlorinator).	10,800	× 15	=1,62,900
Total ..	20,427		3,72,525

Therefore, the average life of the whole plant would be $\frac{3,72,525}{20,427}$ 18 years.

(4) The amount to be contributed to the said account shall be included in the estimate of the recurring cost for upkeep of the works.

(5) The amount of annual contribution to the Waterworks Depreciation Account shall be such that the contributions shall be equal at the end of the period the plant is expected to last, to the original cost of the plant, a reduction in the normal contribution in any year being made by the amount of interest, if any, actually earned in the previous year.

(6) The contribution and expenditure out of the same shall be booked in the general account of the district board under the major head "Waterworks Depreciation Account" and a separate account for each waterworks shall be maintained through a subsidiary ledger.

(7) The balance at the credit of the Waterworks Depreciation Account exceeding the estimated expenditure for renewals and replacements for the next six months shall be kept in fixed deposits with the Imperial Bank of India.

(8) Immediately after the close of each financial year the district board shall submit to the Provincial Government, through the usual channel and to the Chief Engineer, Public Health Department, a statement of receipts and expenditure for the preceding year, in respect of the said account.

(9) The transactions pertaining to the Waterworks Depreciation Account shall be audited by the Examiner of Local Accounts along with the other accounts of the district board, and any default in the payment of contributions or diversion of the balance at the credit of the Waterworks Depreciation Account or any other irregularity shall be brought to the notice of the Provincial Government through the audit report."

(4) In rule 156 of the said rules—

(a) after the words "shall be kept in fixed deposits in the said Bank" insert the following:—

"Balance at the credit of the Waterworks Depreciation Account not required for expenditure during the next six months shall likewise be kept in fixed deposits with the Imperial Bank of India;"

(b) add the following note at the end:—

"Note.—Where no branch of the Imperial Bank of India exists in the district town, the remittance may be arranged through remittance transfer receipts. In case of an existing branch within the district cheques may be enfaced for payment at the subtreasury concerned and sent to bank for realisation and credit to the account."

(5) Number the note under rule 181 of the said rules as Note 1 and after the said note as so numbered add the following as Note 2:—

"Note 2.—For amounts withdrawn from the treasury and tendered at the Imperial Bank of India to be held as 'fixed deposit' on behalf of the Waterworks Depreciation Account there shall be a per contra entry on the receipt side of the cash book showing the fixed deposits. Similarly when this deposit is withdrawn and paid into the treasury, there shall be an entry on the expenditure side of the cash book showing the withdrawal corresponding to the entry of the treasury remittance on the receipt side of the cash book."

(6) In rule 182 of the said rules, in the memorandum of the closing balance, after the entry "balance as per cash book" insert the entry "Deduct—Fixed deposit with the Imperial Bank".

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly; and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly, on the 23rd February, 1940:—

L. A. BILL No. 15 OF 1940.

A Bill further to amend the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; II of 1934.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Reserve Bank of India (Second Amendment) Act, 1940.

Amendment of section 4, Act II of 1934.

2. In section 4 of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, as adapted and modified in accordance with the Third Schedule to the India and Burma (Burma Monetary Arrangements) Order, 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), after sub-section (4) the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(4A) Without prejudice to the validity of any registration made before the commencement of the Reserve Bank of India (Second Amendment) Act, 1940, no person shall, after the commencement of that Act, be registered as a shareholder in respect of any shares held by him whether in his own name or jointly with another person or persons in excess of a total nominal value of twenty thousand rupees, or be entitled to payment of any dividend on such shares or to exercise any of the rights of a shareholder in respect of such shares otherwise than for the purpose of selling the shares."

*The Governor General has been pleased to give the previous sanction required by section 153 of the Government of India Act, 1935, to the introduction in the Legislative Assembly of this Bill.

Amendment of section 56, Act II of 1934.

3. In sub-section (2) of section 56 of the said Act, after the words "registered in his name" the following words shall be inserted, namely:—

"or that any shareholder, to whom the provisions of sub-section (4A) of section 4 apply is the holder of shares in excess of a total nominal value of twenty thousand rupees"

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The intention of the Legislature at the time of the passing of the Reserve Bank of India Act was that the shares of the Reserve Bank should be distributed as widely as possible so as to constitute an electorate for the Central Board of the Bank on a broad basis. The number of shareholders has however since the inception of the Bank declined by nearly 38 per cent. and at the same time a large proportion of the voting strength has become sterilised. The Reserve Bank have therefore reported the position to Government with the recommendation that the number of shares held by an individual should be restricted to a maximum of 200 shares and that no transfer should be registered in the name of any individual in excess of that amount. Government have accepted the necessity for legislation and propose by this Bill to amend the Reserve Bank of India Act to give effect to the Bank's recommendation.

C. W. GURNER, Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE BENGAL.

Dacca, the 26th March 1940.

Forecast of the Rabi Crops of Bengal for 1939-40.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1937-38, the area under summer rice in Bengal has represented some 0·6 per cent. of the total area under rice in India.)

Character of the season.—The rainfall in October was sufficient for the preparatory tillage and sowings of the crops commenced generally in the normal time. Dry weather in November proved helpful to the germination and growth of the crops, but the drought continuing up till the end of January affected the growth of the early crops to some extent. On the whole, the season has been a fairly satisfactory one.

Acreage.—The normal area under the different rabi crops dealt with in this forecast is estimated at 3,706,400 acres. The area actually sown this year is reported to be 3,416,900 acres as against 3,524,200 acres last year. Of this the area under summer rice is reported to be 417,700 acres as against 425,100 acres last year and that under tobacco is 316,600 acres as against 316,000 acres last year.

Outturn.—According to the District Officers' estimates, the average outturn of the different rabi crops for the province, as a whole, works out at 80 per cent. of the normal as against 81 per cent. last year, the outturn for the more important rabi districts being as follows:—

Mymensingh 100, Dacca 86, Rangpur 79, Murshidabad 71, Faridpur 68, Pabna 69, Noakhali 72, Rajshahi 74, Bakarganj 89, Tippera 80, Nadia 76, Jalpaiguri 89, Malda 80 and Bogra 60 per cent. of the normal.

Summer rice and tobacco crops.—The outturn of summer (boro) rice, according to the District Officers' estimates is 88 per cent. of the normal as against 90 per cent. last year. The gross yield of the crop for the province on a basis of the normal yield of 14⅓ maunds of clean rice per acre is estimated at 193,500 tons this year as against 201,400 tons last year.

The outturn of tobacco crop is estimated at 81 per cent. of the normal as against 84 per cent. last year. Taking 13½ maunds as the normal yield of the crop per acre, the gross yield of the crop for the province this year is estimated at 127,200 tons as against 131,600 tons last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

No. F.B. 4034, dated Calcutta, the 16th November 1939.

From—A. Frederick, Esq., M.I.FIRE E., Chief Officer, Fire Brigade, Calcutta,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Department of Public Health and Local Self-Government (Municipal).

(Through C. E. S. Fairweather, Esq., M.A., C.I.E., J.P., Commissioner of Police, Calcutta.)

I have the honour to submit the following report on the working of the Calcutta Fire Brigade for the year ending 31st March 1939. The work of the department throughout the year has been normal.

Financial statement.—The statement of receipts and expenditure and payments made by the municipalities within the jurisdiction of the Fire Brigade and Licensed Warehouse Act I of 1893 is given in appendix I.

The cost of maintenance of the Fire Brigade is contributed by (a) the Calcutta Municipality, (b) the Howrah Municipality and (c) the Garden Reach Municipality at the rate of 83·5 per cent., 14 per cent. and 2·5 per cent., respectively.

Fees for licensed warehouses are charged under section 10 of the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act I of 1893, and are levied at 10 per cent. of the annual valuation of warehouses, subject to a maximum of Rs. 1,500 per warehouse per annum, and the income thus derived provides the 50 per cent. of the cost of the upkeep of the Fire Brigade under the Act.

Fires, etc.—The total number of calls to fires or supposed fires was 522 being a decrease of 44 as compared with the previous year. The actual number of fires attended was 432 which shows a decrease of 23 as compared with the previous year, and the number of fires classed as serious (i.e., over Rs. 20,000 damage per fire, see appendix III) was 22 as per previous year.

The total number of pumping hours at fires during the year was 959 hours 9 minutes as compared with 1,210 hours 50 minutes in the previous year.

Fire Stations.—Appendix IV gives the number of times each fire station has been turned out in response to fire calls together with monthly statements.

Staff.—The strength of the Brigade during the year was 284 as detailed below:—

One Chief Officer, 1 Second Officer, 1 Chief Engineer, 5 Station Officers, 8 Engineers, 7 firemen, 1 Warehouse Inspector, 5 clerks, 1 store-keeper, 3 telephone operators, 2 carpenters, 2 lathe mechanics, 1 fitter, 1 blacksmith, 1 tinsmith, 10 Indian drivers, 1 head tindal, 30 tindals, 188 khallasies and 15 menial employees.

The conduct and discipline of the staff throughout the year have been exemplary.

Fatalities and accidents.—Appendix VI gives short reports of fires and special occurrences involving loss of life or serious accidents.

It is with deep regret I am to report the death by heart failure of one of my Station Officers late H. J. Abbott. The officer rendered conspicuous services for 15 years to the Brigade and he was one of the most efficient officers.

The number of lives lost at fires during the year under review is 8 being a decrease of 5 as compared with the previous year.

I am glad to report that no serious accidents occurred during training recruits, or at drill.

In all cases, where necessary, first-aid was rendered by the Fire Brigade and the injured persons conveyed to hospital by motor ambulances.

Water-supply.—In Calcutta water for fire extinguishing is obtained from the unfiltered water-supply system maintained by the Corporation of Calcutta with pumping stations located on the banks of the river Hooghly at Mullick Ghat and Watgunge.

Fires in Cossipur-Chitpur and adjoining areas are extinguished with water supplied from ponds or tanks, many of which are replenished only by rainfall.

In Howrah the condition is far from satisfactory, although the municipality has installed some hydrants on the filtered water-supply for being used at fires.

Fire float.—The fire float (5,000 gallons per minute capacity) is stationed on the river opposite the Prinsep's Ghat. During the year under review it has responded to 11 calls as compared with 14 calls in the previous year.

Street fire alarms, telephones and electrical communications.—I am pleased to record my appreciation of the excellent service rendered by the Bengal Telephone Company.

Inspection Department.—The majority of theatres, cinemas and other places of public amusement, with few exceptions, have no serious fire risks and there were no serious fires during the year under review in threatres, cinemas or places of public amusement.

In connection with the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act I of 1893, 6,519 inspections of warehouses have been made during the year. Four hundred and fifty-nine applications and complaints have been attended to and disposed of. One hundred and thirty-two prosecutions were made under section 14 of Act I of 1893 which resulted in 77 persons being fined, the fines aggregating in all Rs. 801. Twenty-five persons were warned and discharged and 28 cases were withdrawn and two cases were acquitted.

General.—The Calcutta Fire Brigade protects the City of Calcutta and the municipalities of Howrah and Garden Reach, and may attend fires outside the boundaries of the above, but not exceeding a radius of 12 miles from Fire Brigade Headquarters, provided appliances can be spared, and on payment of a prescribed fee. The total area protected is approximately 112 square miles, comprising a population of over 2,000,000 persons.

Fire Brigade Headquarters is still located in premises rented for that purpose. A scheme for building an up-to-date and efficient Headquarters on Free School Street as approved by the Calcutta Corporation, Garden Reach and Howrah Municipalities has now been sanctioned by Government and steps are being taken for building the Station.

On the 5th December 1938 a tournament and exhibition of the Calcutta Fire Brigade was held in honour of His Excellency the Governor of Bengal, late Rt. Hon'ble Lord Brabourne, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., M.C.

Temporary regulations for the prevention and control of smallpox.

3. If any measure which the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector has, by a notice issued under regulation 20, required to be carried out, be not carried out to his satisfaction within the time stated in the notices the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector shall be entitled to carry out the measure.

4. (1) All expenses incurred in carrying out any work in pursuance of an order issued under these regulations shall be paid by the municipality except in any case where the order directs a person to carry out any work in relation to property in his profession, in which case the expenses shall be paid by such person:

Provided that where the conditions, which led the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector to pass such an order, are not attributable to any act or default of the person in possession of the property, the municipality may pay to such person the whole or a part of the expenses incurred by him in carrying out the order.

(2) The municipality may recover all expenses incurred by the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector in carrying out the measure under regulation 3 from the person or persons to whom the notice was originally issued.

5. The municipality shall pay adequate compensation to any person who has sustained substantial loss or damage by reason of anything done under these regulations:

Provided that no person shall receive any compensation for anything done or suffered under these regulations, if he has failed to carry out an order, issued under these regulations within the time specified in the order and to the satisfaction of the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector.

7. (1) Every medical practitioner called in to attend upon any case of smallpox shall forthwith give notice of the case by a special messenger to the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector and the cost of such messenger in each case shall be defrayed by the municipality.

8. Registrars of births and deaths shall supply to the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector such periodical returns of cases of smallpox as he may from time to time call upon them to furnish.

9. The Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may examine any person who is, or suspected to be, suffering from smallpox or who, in his opinion, may be infected with or likely to spread smallpox.

Isolation of patients.

10. Tippera.—No. 586P.H.—8th April 1940.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 311 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932), the Governor is pleased to make the following rules for the regulation of the supply of filtered water to private premises for domestic purposes in the southern section of the Chandpur Municipality in the district of Tippera:—

Rules.

So long as the Commissioners deem it practicable and consistent with the maintenance of an efficient water-supply, they may grant to any owner or occupier of a holding paying a water rate imposed under the provisions of Chapter VIII of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, on the annual value of such holding, when such annual value is not less than Rs. 100, a connecting-pipe from the service-pipes of the Commissioners for the purpose of leading water to such holding for domestic purposes only.

1. The owner or occupier of any holding requiring water to be laid on to such holding for domestic purposes must apply for the same on the printed form A to be supplied free of cost at the municipal office. The conditions subject to which a house-connection will be given are set out in the form, and the owner or occupier shall sign the statement undertaking to observe the rules before a house-connection will be given.

2. A fee of Rs. 100 shall be paid to the Commissioners by such owner or occupier for each connection to a municipal main supply-pipe before any work is commenced, such fee to be in addition to all other costs and charges imposed under these rules.

3. Each holding must have a separate connection to the municipal main supply-pipe. Extension from the communication-pipe of one holding to another holding shall not be permitted and combination of holdings for the purpose of these rules shall not be allowed.

4. The connection shall consist of two portions—

(a) the service-pipe from the street main to the boundary of the holding, including ferrule, stop-cock and check-pipes;

(b) the storage tank (or tanks) with service-pipe connecting to it from the boundary of the holding, also outlet-pipes, taps and other accessories as required.

5. The items referred to in clause (a) of rule 4 shall be provided and fixed by and at the expense of the Commissioners, and such pipes and fittings shall remain as their property.

6. The items referred to in clause (b) of rule 4 shall be provided and fixed at the expense of the owner or occupier and shall be maintained by him in good working order. The tank is to be suitably covered and protected and is to be provided with locked lid, ball-valve, stop-valve and overflow pipe. The inlet and outlet pipes shall be so laid that they will be protected from the heat of the sun.

7. The owner or occupier shall not permit the service-pipe including the items referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of rule 4 or any part thereof, to be altered, removed or interfered with by any person other than an authorised representative of the Commissioners, who shall be empowered by the Commissioners to alter or adjust the service-pipe as may from time to time be necessary for the maintenance of the requisite flow of water. No tapping or branching off of the service-pipe shall be allowed except at a level approximately the same as that of the ball-valve.

8. The tank referred to in clause (b) of rule 4 shall be durable and water-tight and the cover, overflow pipe and other accessories shall be so constructed that mosquitoes cannot enter the tank. The ball-valve and other fittings shall be exact duplicates of standard samples kept in the office of the Commissioners and approved by them at a meeting. The storage tank or tanks shall be cleaned and sterilized quarterly by the staff of the Commissioners under the supervision of one of their officers and the said officer shall have the power of locking up the tank or tanks if he thinks so desirable.

9. Every storage tank shall be fitted with an overflow pipe, the end of which shall project over the wall of the house and shall be placed in a conspicuous position. Discharge of water from the overflow pipe means that the ball-valve is failing to function, and the owner or occupier shall notify the waterworks officers every time he finds such discharge occurring.

10. Every owner or occupier of any holding, in respect of which a connection has been made under these rules, shall be entitled to supply of water corresponding to the annual valuation of such holding, according to the following table:—

12. In case the owner or occupier requires for a special occasion or for any other purpose more water than the amount to which he is entitled according to rule 10 or rules 10 and 11 together, as the case may be, he may apply to the Commissioners in form B (obtainable at the municipal office free of charge) for a temporary connection. On receipt of the application, together with the fees as provided in rule 12, the Commissioners shall forthwith instal within the compound and at a level of two feet above ground an additional storage tank (or tanks) of 300 gallons capacity with ball-valve and two taps fixed to each tank. They shall connect the same to the street main by a service-pipe or pipes, and do all other work necessary to commence and maintain the supply.

The Commissioners shall keep in stock a number of tanks, with pipes, fittings, etc., for the above purpose.

14. The payment referred to in rule 12 shall be made once a week. In case the owner or occupier fails to make the payment weekly, the Commissioners or their officers may at once stop the additional supply of water by cutting off the temporary connection and remove the storage tank or tanks, temporary service-pipe, etc., fixed for such connection.

15. Two or more such temporary connections may be taken, if required, on payment of additional costs and weekly charges.

16. The Commissioners may cut off the connection between any waterworks of the Commissioners and any holding to which water is supplied from such works, or may turn off such supply, in any of the following cases, viz.—

(a) If the holding is unoccupied;

(b) If the occupier fails to pay his water rate;

(c) if the occupier in any way interferes with, damages or alters the service-pipe; and

(d) if the occupier refuses to admit any officer duly empowered in that behalf into the holding for the purpose of making any examination or inspection of the service-pipe or storage tank, or prevents such officer from making such examination or inspection:

Provided that twenty-four hours' notice in writing of such examination or inspection may be demanded.

17. The works required under rule 4 (b) shall be carried out by a person or firm employed by owner or occupier and approved by the Commissioners. For this purpose the Commissioners shall grant licenses to approved persons or firms, who should preferably have had previous experience in plumbing work.

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Assembly.

THE BENGAL NON-AGRICULTURAL TENANCY BILL, 1939.

A

for the protection of tenants holding lands in permanently-settled estates for non-agricultural purposes.

WHEREAS it is necessary to compel the proprietors and other classes of landlords in permanently-settled areas to conduct themselves with moderation towards their non-agricultural tenants;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Non-Agricultural Tenancy Act, 1940.

(2) It shall apply to the permanently-settled areas of the whole of Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force with effect from the 1st April, 1940.

Definition.

2. "Non-agricultural tenant" means any person holding land as tenant for non-agricultural purposes whether for homestead, shop, godown or factory or for any purposes except for agriculture and horticulture immediately or mediately under a proprietor.

3. Notwithstanding any contract between parties or anything in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, non-agricultural tenant shall not be liable to ejectment except for using the land in such a manner as to lower its value substantially : IV of 1882.

Provided that a non-agricultural tenant not liable to ejectment according to the terms of contract between parties or in accordance with the provisions of any law for the time being in force, shall not be liable to ejectment by virtue of this section :

Provided further that except as provided by paragraph 1 of this section, no suit for ejectment shall lie for any land purchased or otherwise transferred before the commencement of this Act.

4. Notwithstanding any contract between the parties or any law for the time being in force or any custom to the contrary the non-agricultural tenant shall have the right to erect any pucca structures and to plant and cut down trees in his tenancy.

5. Notwithstanding anything in a contract or any custom to the contrary the rent of a non-agricultural tenant's holding shall not be liable to enhancement except under the provisions of this Act.

6. The rent of a non-agricultural tenant's holding unless definitely settled as mokarari or fixed in perpetuity, shall be liable to enhancement or reduction according to the following principles :—

(a) The maximum amount of rent of a non-agricultural tenant's holding after enhancement shall not exceed, by more than 50 per cent. the average prevailing rate of rent payable for the agricultural land comprised in the estate or mouja in which the non-agricultural tenancy is situate.

The Bengal Non-Agricultural Tenancy Bill, 1939.

(Clauses 7, 8.)

(b) When the existing rent is found to be more or less than the amount provided in sub-section (a) of this section it shall be reduced or enhanced, as the case may be, to an amount as provided by that sub-section.

(c) If the rent is once enhanced or reduced it shall not be revised again except in the case of increase or reduction in the area of the tenancy.

7. Where not transferable at present either under the contract or according to law, non-agricultural tenant's holding shall be transferable without landlord's consent.

8. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary between the parties, in the case of a compulsory acquisition of the land of a non-agricultural tenant's holding under the Land Acquisition Act, the compensation money shall be apportioned to such tenant under the ordinary law for apportioning the compensation as if the contract did not exist.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Bengal Tenancy Laws were enacted from time to time for protecting the agricultural raiyats but unfortunately nothing has so far been done to give any protection to the non-agricultural tenants who also owing to their very helpless condition require as much protection as the agricultural raiyats. In the absence of any law, landlords of non-agricultural areas in permanently-settled estates, treat them as tenants-at-will and mercilessly squeeze out money from such tenants and the purchasers. The present Bill has been brought to give such tenants protection from eviction and arbitrary enhancement of rent. Provision has also been made for free transferability of such tenancies in all cases and for equitable rate of rent.

K. ALI AFZAL,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Assembly.

THE BENGAL MARRIAGE DOWRY PREVENTION BILL, 1939.

A

to abolish the practice of taking dowries in marriages in Bengal.

WHEREAS it is expedient to abolish the dowry system in marriages for the prevention of cruelties in marriages in Hindus, Muhammadans and any other societies domiciled in Bengal and for making the marriage ceremony easier and happier in those societies, it is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Marriage Dowry Prevention Act, 1939.

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal and is applicable to the Hindus, Muhammadans and all other societies domiciled in Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, appoint.

2. In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the object or context—

(1) The term " Bridegroom's party " means and includes the party of the bridegroom, his relations, friends, and other persons who are connected with the marriage settlement of the bridegroom, and " bride's party " means and includes parents of the bride, her relations who are connected with her marriage settlement.

(2) " Dowry " means and includes any amount in cash, any ornament for bride or bridegroom or any other property moveable or immoveable or any valuable security, i.e., a document whereby a legal right to any such property is created, extended, transferred, restricted, extinguished, or released or whereby any person acknowledges that he is under any legal liability or has not a legal right in respect of any such property given or executed in consideration of marriage.

3. If any bridegroom, anyone of his party receives or in any way appropriates any dowry from the bride or her party or if a bride or any of bride's party receives or in any way appropriates any dowry from the bridegroom or his party, or if a bridegroom or bride refuses to marry or his or her party refuses to consent to the marriage only on the ground of inability of the other party to pay dowry, he or she shall be punished with imprisonment of either description which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both :

Provided that no gift of any ornaments, cloths or garments or any other thing which are ordinarily used by females of that class of society to which the bride belongs and which are given to the bride out of affection without any demand from the bridegroom or bride or any of his or her party, is a dowry within the meaning of this section.

The Bengal Marriage Dowry Prevention Bill, 1939.

(Clauses 4, 5.)

4. If a husband gives pressure to or ill-treats his wife in order to exact or thereby exacts any dowry after marriage from her or her father, mother or brother or if he insults or threatens to insult or to forsake her for the exaction of any such dowry from her or her father, mother, or brother, he shall be punished with imprisonment of either description which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

5. No Magistrate shall take cognizance of such a case except on the complaint of the bride or wife or on the complaint of her father, mother or brother or the bridegroom as the case may be and the offence shall be bailable and compoundable.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

A nefarious practice of extorting heavy dowry from the bride's parents has grown amongst the educated communities of Hindus and Muhammadans in Bengal, so much so, that many families have been heavily indebted and ruined and many others are going to be ruined under the pressure of the brutal dowry system. We hear now and then and find also in newspapers, reports of unmarried girls committing suicide to relieve their parents from the heavy expenses of their marriages. In illiterate classes on the other hand the practice of payment of bride's price has assumed such shape that a poor man cannot marry till he grows old or remains unmarried for want of necessary funds for bride's price. So generally the poor man marries only to leave a widow behind him soon after his marriage. These show how this evil practice is eating in the vital part of the societies especially of Hindu and Muhammadan societies. If this pernicious practice is not checked in time, it will create havoc in the communities concerned.

2. The dowry system is bad upon principle as in these days of equality, it is fully injudicious and unjust that man and woman should be treated differently in marriages.

3. In these days of economic difficulties it is suicidal to the societies to indulge in unnecessary expenses. For these and other reasons it is absolutely necessary that this evil practice be immediately stopped by legislation.

11. In section 78 of the Act insert the word "exclusively" between the words "Bengal" and "by" in the 4th line of 2nd paragraph (section 23A).

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Wakf Act of 1934 is defective in many ways. There are several ambiguities and omissions which make its provisions ineffective and infructuous. Some of the powers now given to the Board of Wakfs and the Commissioner of Wakfs which heretofore used to be exercised by the Civil Courts, have not been withdrawn specifically from the latter, and this leads to conflict of jurisdiction.

For the proper administration of wakfs it is necessary to invest the Board of Wakfs with more powers particularly with regard to financing and management of wakf properties and their protection from sale.

It is also necessary to simplify the trial of wakf suits between interested persons and arrange for their expeditious disposal.

Although it was intended that the Board should effectively control the management and administration of wakfs particularly those in which no mutawalli is functioning, the Act does not clearly define such powers. Particularly in cases where receivers are in possession having been appointed by courts it has been found difficult to bring them under control.

The present amending Bill aims at the solution of these difficulties.

THE BENGAL VILLAGE SELF-GOVERNMENT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1939.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1939.

2. It shall come into force on the date it is finally published in the Calcutta Gazette after it is passed by both Houses of Legislature and assented to by the Governor.

2A. Sub-section (3) of section 6 with the proviso shall be deleted.

3. In section 7 after the words "shall be entitled to vote at an election of the members of the union board :", the following words shall be inserted, namely :—

"and the votes shall be taken by secret ballot in the manner prescribed by rules made under this Act."

4. The following section be substituted for section 20 :—

"The union board shall, when a vacancy occurs, appoint a person to be a dafadar or chaukidar under this Act. The union board may, on good and sufficient grounds, dismiss a dafadar or chaukidar."

5. The following section be substituted for section 21 :—

"The number of dafadars and chaukidars to be employed in a union, the salary to be paid to them and the nature and cost of their equipment shall be determined by the union board."

6. The following section be substituted for section 22 :—

"Any dafadar or chaukidar who is guilty of any wilful misconduct in his office or neglect of his duty, such misconduct or neglect not being so grave in the opinion of the board, as to require his dismissal, shall be liable to be punished by the union board with a fine not exceeding the amount of one month's salary."

7. The following section be substituted for section 25 :—

"All fines realised from a dafadar or chaukidar under section 22 of the Act, shall be credited to a Fund of the union named as Prize Fund."

8. In section 36 the following words be deleted, namely :—

"subject to the approval of the local board or where there is no local board, of district board."

9. In section 37, sub-section (a), after the word "contribution," the words "if any" be deleted.

10. In section 40 after the words "District Magistrate", the words "or Subdivisional Magistrate" be inserted.

11. The proviso to section 45 be omitted.

12. In proviso to section 88 after the words "the District Judge", the words "or the Subdivisional Munsif, where there is no Subdivisional Munsif, the senior Munsif of the Subdivisional Munsif Court" be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Secret ballot is a crying necessity to avoid undue influence and coercion. Unlike other self-governing bodies the union boards can neither appoint nor dismiss dafadars or chaukidars though they pay for their salaries and equipment. This is unfair and equitable. Moreover the union board is the most competent authority to determine the number of dafadars and chaukidars necessary for the union and the salary to be paid to them and the requisite equipment for them. So dictation from outside is superfluous and generally creates difficulties in the working of the union boards. The union board alone should have power for inflicting punishment on its servants. So the power of the District Magistrate in this respect should be withdrawn. These rights are long overdue for the union boards. The present dyarchical system is mainly responsible for the general neglect of duties among the dafadars and chaukidars. So this dyarchy should be given a decent burial. It is desirable that the fines realised from the dafadars or chaukidars of a union should be credited to the Prize Fund of that union so that some one of them may be benefited thereby. The Subdivisional Magistrate along with District Magistrate should be given the power of revising an assessment. The union boards for securing suitable grant-in-aid from the District Board under proviso to section 45, which is a misnomer in many cases, vie with each other in making assessment under section 37(b) and this zeal is responsible for the abnormally high union rate in many unions. So the sooner the proviso to section 45 goes the better for the rate-payers. Like Subdivisional Magistrate under section 71 the Subdivisional Munsif or the senior Munsif of the Subdivisional Court should be invested with power to revise the order or decrees of the union courts to minimise the troubles of the public in attending the District Judge's Court. Nomination has outgrown its utility hence it should be abolished.

(l) "trade mark" means a mark used or proposed to be used in relation to goods for the purpose of indicating or so as to indicate a connection in the course of trade between the goods and some person having the right either as proprietor or as registered user, to use the mark whether with or without any indication of the identity of that person;

(m) "transmission" means transmission by operation of law, devolution on the personal representative of a deceased person and any other mode of transfers, not being assignment;

(n) "tribunal" means the Registrar, or as the case may be, the Court before which the proceeding concerned is pending.

(2) References in this Act to the use of a mark shall be construed as references to the use of a printed or other visual representation of the mark, and references herein to the use of a mark in relation to goods shall be construed as references to the use thereof upon, or in any other relation whatsoever to, such goods.

Application of other laws not barred.

3. The provisions of this Act shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, the provisions of any other law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER II.

THE REGISTER AND CONDITIONS FOR REGISTRATION.

The register of trade marks.

4. (1) For the purposes of this Act there shall be established at the Patent Office a Trade Mark Registry, and a record called the Register of Trade Marks (in this Act referred to as the register) shall be kept thereat wherein shall be entered all registered trade marks with the names, addresses and descriptions of their proprietors, notifications of assignments and transmissions, the names, addresses and descriptions of registered users, disclaimers, conditions, limitations, and such other matters relating to registered trade marks as may be prescribed, but there shall not be entered in the register any ntoice of any trust express, implied or constructive, nor shall any such notice be receivable by the Registrar.

(2) Subject to the superintendence and direction of the Central Government, the register shall be kept under the control and management of the Controller of Patents and Designs, who shall for the purposes of this Act be called the Registrar of Trade Marks and is in this Act referred to as the Registrar.

(3) The register shall at all convenient times be open to the inspection of the public, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed.

Registration to be in respect of particular goods.

5. (1) A trade mark may be registered only in respect of particular goods or classes of goods.

(2) Any question arising as to the class within which any goods fall shall be determined by the Registrar whose decision in the matter shall be final.

Distinctiveness requisite for registration.

6. (1) A trade mark shall not be registered unless it contains or consists of at least one of the following essential particulars, namely:—

(a) the name of a company, individual, or firm, represented in a special or particular manner;

(b) the signature of the applicant for registration or some predecessor in his business;

(c) one or more invented words;

(d) one or more words having no direct reference to the character or quality of the goods, and not being, according to its ordinary signification, a geographical name or surname or the name of a sect, caste or tribe in India;

(e) any other distinctive mark, provided that a name, signature, or any word, other than such as fall within the descriptions in the above clauses, shall not be registrable except upon evidence of its distinctiveness.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the expression "distinctive" means adapted, in relation to the goods in respect of which a trade mark is proposed to be registered, to distinguish goods with which the proprietor of the trade mark is or may be connected in the course of trade from goods in the case of which no such connection subsists, either generally or, where the trade mark is proposed to be registered subject to limitations, in relation to use within the extent of the registration.

(3) In determining whether a trade mark is adapted to distinguish as aforesaid, the tribunal may have regard to the extent to which—

(a) the trade mark is inherently so adapted to distinguish, and

(b) by reason of the use of the trade mark or of any other circumstances, the trade mark is in fact so adapted to distinguish:

Provided that in the case of a trade mark which has been continuously used (either by the applicant for registration or by some predecessor in his business, and either in its original form or with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity) in relation to the same goods as those in relation to which registration is applied for, during a period from a date prior to the 25th day of February, 1937, to the date of application for registration, the Registrar shall not refuse registration by reason only of the fact that the trade mark is not adapted to distinguish as aforesaid, and may accept evidence of acquired distinctiveness as entitling the trade mark to registration.

Limitation as to colour.

7. (1) A trade mark may be limited wholly or in part to one or more specified colours, and any such limitation shall be taken into consideration by any tribunal having to decide on the distinctive character of the trade mark.

(2) So far as a trade mark is registered without limitation of colour it shall be deemed to be registered for all colours.

Prohibition of registration of certain matter.

8. No trade mark nor part of a trade mark shall be registered which consists of, or contains, any scandalous design, or any matter the use of which would—

(a) by reason of its being likely to deceive or to cause confusion or otherwise, be disentitled to protection in a Court of justice; or

(b) be likely to hurt the religious susceptibilities of any class of His Majesty's subjects; or

(c) be contrary to any law for the time being in force or to morality.

Use of names of chemical elements barred.

9. No word which is the commonly used and accepted name of any single chemical element or single chemical compound (as distinguished from a mixture) shall be registered as a trade mark in respect of a chemical substance or preparation, and any such registration shall, notwithstanding anything in section 24, be deemed for the purposes of section 46 to be an entry made in the register without sufficient cause or an entry wrongly remaining on the register, as the circumstances may require:

Provided that this section shall not apply to a word which is used to denote only a brand or make of the element or compound as made by the proprietor or a registered user of the trade mark, as distinguished from the element or compound as made by others, and in association with a suitable name or description open to the public use.

Prohibition of registration of identical or similar trade mark.

10. (1) Save as provided in sub-section (2), no trade mark shall be registered in respect of any goods or description of goods which is identical with a trade mark belonging to a different proprietor and already on the register in respect of the same goods or description of goods, or which so nearly resembles such trade mark as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion.

(2) In case of honest concurrent use or of other special circumstances which, in the opinion of the Registrar, make it proper so to do he may permit the registration by more than one proprietor of trade marks which are identical or nearly resemble each other in respect of the same goods or description of goods, subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as the Registrar may think fit to impose.

(3) Where separate applications are made by different persons to be registered as proprietors respectively of trade marks which are identical or nearly resemble each other, in respect of the same goods or description of goods, the Registrar may refuse to register any of them until their rights have been determined by a competent Court.

Registration of parts of trade marks and of trade marks as a series.

11. (1) Where the proprietor of a trade mark claims to be entitled to the exclusive use of any part thereof separately, he may apply to register the whole and the part as separate trade marks.

(2) Each such separate trade mark shall satisfy all the conditions applying to, and have all the incidents of, an independent trade mark.

(3) Where a person claiming to be the proprietor of several trade marks in respect of the same goods or description of goods which, while resembling each other in the material particulars thereof, yet differ in respect of—

(a) statements of the goods in relation to which they are respectively used or proposed to be used; or

(b) statements of number, price, quality, or names of places; or

(c) other matter of a non-distinctive character which does not substantially affect the identity of the trade mark; or seeks to register those trade marks, they may be registered as a series in one registration.

(d) colour;

Associated trade marks.

12. (1) Where a trade mark which is registered, or is the subject of an application for registration, in respect of any goods is identical with another trade mark which is registered, or is the subject of an application for registration, in the name of the same proprietor in respect of the same goods or description of goods, or so nearly resembles it as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion if used by a person other than the proprietor, the Registrar may at any time require that the trade marks shall be entered on the register as associated trade marks.

(2) Where a trade mark and any part thereof are, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 11, registered as separate trade marks in the name of the same proprietor, they shall be deemed to be, and shall be registered as, associated trade marks.

(3) All trade marks registered in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 11 as a series in one registration shall be deemed to be, and shall be registered as, associated trade marks.

(4) On application made in the prescribed manner by the registered proprietor of two or more trade marks registered as associated trade marks, the Registrar may dissolve the association as respects any of them if he is satisfied that there would be no likelihood of deception or confusion being caused if that trade mark were used by any other person in relation to any of the goods in respect of which it is registered, and may amend the register accordingly.

Registration subject to disclaimer.

13. If a trade mark contains—

(a) any part not separately registered as a trade mark in the name of the proprietor, or for the separate registration of which no application has been made, or

(b) any matter common to the trade, or otherwise of a non-distinctive character, the tribunal, in deciding whether the trade mark shall be entered or shall remain on the register, may require, as a condition of its being on the register, that the proprietor shall either disclaim any right to the exclusive use of such part or of all or any portion of such matter, as the case may be, to the exclusive use of which the tribunal holds him not to be entitled, or make such other disclaimer as the tribunal may consider necessary for the purpose of defining the rights of the proprietor under the registration:

Provided that no disclaimer shall affect any rights of the proprietor of a trade mark except such as arise out of the registration of the trade mark in respect of which the disclaimer is made.

CHAPTER III.

PROCEDURE FOR, AND DURATION OF, REGISTRATION.

Application for registration.

14. (1) Any person claiming to be the proprietor of a trade mark used or proposed to be used by him who is desirous of registering it shall apply in writing to the Registrar in the prescribed manner, and subject to the provisions of this Act, the Registrar may refuse the application or may accept it absolutely or subject to such amendments, modifications, conditions or limitations, if any, as he may think fit.

(2) In the case of a refusal or conditional acceptance the Registrar shall, if required by the applicant, state in writing the grounds of his decision and the materials used by him in arriving thereat.

(3) The tribunal may at any time, whether before or after acceptance, correct any error in or in connection with the application, or may permit the applicant to amend his application upon such terms as it may think fit.

Opposition to registration.

15. (1) When an application for registration of a trade mark has been accepted, whether absolutely or subject to conditions or limitations, the Registrar shall, as soon as may be after acceptance, cause the application as accepted, together with the conditions and limitations, if any, subject to which it has been accepted, to be advertised in the prescribed manner:

Provided that the Registrar may cause an application to be advertised before acceptance if it relates to a trade mark to which clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 6 applies, or in any other case where it appears to him that it is expedient by reason of any exceptional circumstances so to do, and where an application has been so advertised the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, advertise it again when it has been accepted, but shall not be bound so to do.

(2) Any person may, within the prescribed time from the date of the advertisement of an application, give notice in writing in the prescribed manner to the Registrar of opposition to the registration.

(3) The Registrar shall serve in the prescribed manner a copy of the notice on the applicant, and within the prescribed time the applicant shall send to the Registrar, in the prescribed manner, a counter-statement of the grounds on which he relies for his application, and, if he does not do so, he shall be deemed to have abandoned his application.

(4) If the applicant sends such counter-statement the Registrar shall serve in the prescribed manner a copy thereof on the persons giving notice of opposition, and shall, after hearing the parties, if so required, and considering the evidence, decide whether, and subject to what conditions or limitations, if any, registration is to be permitted.

(5) If a person giving notice of opposition or an applicant sending a counter-statement after receipt of a copy of such notice, or an appellant against any order of the Registrar under section 14 or this section, neither resides nor carries on business in British India, the tribunal may require him to give security for costs of the proceedings before it, and in default of such security being duly given may treat the opposition or application or appeal, as the case may be, as abandoned.

Registration.

16. (1) When an application for registration of a trade mark has been accepted and either has not been opposed and the time for notice of opposition has expired, or having been opposed, has been decided in favour of the applicant, the Registrar shall, unless the application has been accepted in error, or unless the Central Government otherwise directs, register the said trade mark, and the trade mark, when registered, shall be registered as of the date of the making of the said application, and that date shall, subject to any directions made under section 83 applicable to such trade mark, be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the date of registration.

(2) On the registration of a trade mark the Registrar shall issue to the applicant a certificate in the prescribed form of the registration thereof sealed with the seal of the Patent Office.

(3) Where registration of a trade mark is not completed within twelve months from the date of the application by reason of default on the part of the applicant, the Registrar may, after giving notice to the applicant in the prescribed manner, treat the application as abandoned unless it is completed within the time specified in that behalf in the notice.

Jointly owned trade marks.

17. (1) Save as provided in sub-section (2), nothing in this Act shall authorise the registration of two or more persons who use a trade mark independently, or propose so to use it, as joint proprietors thereof.

(2) Where the relations between two or more persons interested in a trade mark are such that no one of them is entitled as between himself and the other or others of them to use it except—

(a) on behalf of both or all of them, or

(b) in relation to an article with which both or all of them are connected in the course of trade, those persons may be registered as joint proprietors of the trade mark, and this Act shall have effect in relation to any rights to the use of the trade mark vested in those persons as if those rights had been vested in a single person.

Duration and renewal of registration.

18. (1) The registration of a trade mark shall be for a period of seven years, but may be renewed from time to time in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) The Registrar shall, on application made by the registered proprietor of a trade mark in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed period, renew the registration of the trade mark for a period of fifteen years from the date of expiration of the original registration or of the last renewal of registration, as the case may be (which date is in this section referred to as "the expiration of the last registration").

(3) At the prescribed time before the expiration of the last registration of a trade mark, the Registrar shall send notice in the prescribed manner to the registered proprietor of the date of expiration and the conditions as to payment of fees and otherwise upon which a renewal of registration may be obtained, and if at the expiration of the time prescribed in that behalf those conditions have not been duly complied with the Registrar may remove the trade mark from the register, subject to such conditions (if any) as to its restoration to the register as may be prescribed.

Effect of removal from register for failure to pay fee for renewal.

19. Where a trade mark has been removed from the register for failure to pay the fee for renewal, it shall nevertheless, for the purpose of any application for the registration of another trade mark during one year next after the date of the removal, be deemed to be a trade mark already on the register, unless the tribunal is satisfied either—

(a) that there has been no bona fide trade use of the trade mark which has been removed during the two years immediately preceding its removal; or

(b) that no deception or confusion would be likely to arise from the use of the trade mark which is the subject of the application for registration by reason of any previous use of the trade mark which has been removed.

CHAPTER IV.

EFFECT OF REGISTRATION.

No action for infringement of unregistered trade mark.

20. (1) No person shall be entitled to institute any proceeding to prevent, or to recover damages for, the infringement of an unregistered trade mark unless such trade mark has been continuously in use since before the 25th day of February, 1937, by such person or by a predecessor in title of his and unless an application for its registration, made within five years from the commencement of this Act, has been refused, and the Registrar shall, on application in the prescribed manner, grant a certificate that such application has been refused.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect rights of action against any person for passing off goods as the goods of another person or the remedies in respect thereof.

Right conferred by registration.

21. Subject to the provisions of sections 22, 25 and 26, the registration of a person in the register as proprietor of a trade mark in respect of any goods shall, if valid, give to that person the exclusive right to the use of the trade mark in relation to those goods and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, that right shall be deemed to be infringed by any person who, not being the proprietor of the trade mark or a registered user thereof using by way of the permitted use, uses a mark identical with it or so nearly resembling it as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion, in the course of trade, in relation to any goods in respect of which it is registered, and in such manner as to render the use of the mark likely to be taken either—

(a) as being use as a trade mark; or

(b) to import a reference to some person having the right either as a proprietor or as registered user to use the trade mark or to goods with which such a person as aforesaid is connected in the course of trade.

No Infringement in certain circumstances.

22. (1) The right to the use of a trade mark given under section 21 by registration shall be subject to any conditions or limitations entered on the register, and shall not be deemed to be infringed by the use of any such mark as aforesaid in any mode, in relation to goods to be sold or otherwise traded in, in any place, or in relation to goods to be exported to any market, or in any other circumstances, to which, having regard to any such limitations, the registration does not extend.

(2) The said right to the use of a trade mark shall not be deemed to be infringed by the use of any such mark as aforesaid by any person—

(a) in relation to goods connected in the course of trade with the proprietor or a registered user of the trade mark if, as to those goods or a bulk of which they form part, the proprietor or the registered user conforming to the permitted use has applied the trade mark and has not subsequently removed or obliterated it, or has at any time expressly or impliedly consented to the use of the trade mark; or

(b) in relation to goods adapted to form part of, or to be accessory to, other goods in relation to which the trade mark has been used without infringement of the right given as aforesaid or might for the time being be so used, if the use of the mark is reasonably necessary in order to indicate that the goods are so adapted and neither the purpose nor the effect of the use of the mark is to indicate otherwise than in accordance with the fact a connection in the course of trade between any person and the goods.

(3) The use of a registered trade mark, being one of two or more registered trade marks which are identical or nearly resemble each other, in exercise of the right to the use of that trade mark given by registration as aforesaid, shall not be deemed to be an infringement of the right so given to the use of any other of those trade marks.

Registration to be prima facie evidence of validity.

23. In all legal proceedings relating to a registered trade mark, the fact that a person is registered as proprietor thereof shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the original registration of the trade mark and of all subsequent assignments and transmissions thereof.

Registration to be conclusive as to validity after seven years.

24. In all legal proceedings relating to a registered trade mark, the original registration of the trade mark shall after the expiration of seven years from the date of such original registration be taken to be valid in all respects unless such registration was obtained by fraud, or unless the trade mark offends against the provisions of section 8.

Saving for vested rights.

25. Nothing in this Act shall entitle the proprietor or a registered user of a registered trade mark to interfere with or restrain the use by any person of a trade mark identical with or nearly resembling it in relation to goods in relation to which that person or a predecessor in title of his has continuously used that trade mark from a date prior—

(a) to the use of the first-mentioned trade mark in relation to those goods by the proprietor or a predecessor in title of his, or

(b) to the registration of the first-mentioned trade mark in respect of those goods in the name of the proprietor or a predecessor in title of his, whichever is the earlier, or to object (on such use being proved) to registration of that identical or nearly resembling trade mark in respect of those goods under sub-section (2) of section 10.

Saving for use of name, address or description of goods.

26. No registration of a trade mark shall interfere with any bona fide use by a person of his own name or that of his place of business, or of the name, or of the name of the place of business, of any of his predecessors in business, or the use by any person of any bona fide description of the character or quality of his goods, not being a description that would be likely to be taken as importing any such reference as is mentioned in clause (b) of section 21 or in clause (b) of section 57.

Words used as name or description of an article or substance.

27. (1) The registration of a trade mark shall not be deemed to have become invalid by reason only of any use after the date of the registration of any words which the trade mark contains or of which it consists as the name or description of an article or substance:

Provided that, if it is proved either—

(a) that there is a well-known and established use of the said words as the name or description of the article or substance by a person or persons carrying on a trade therein, not being use in relation to goods connected in the course of trade with the proprietor or a registered user of the trade mark or (in the case of a certification trade mark) goods certified by the proprietor; or

(b) that the article or substance has been manufactured under a patent in force at or granted after the commencement of this section, that a period of two years or more after the cesser of the patent has elapsed, and that the said words are the only practicable name or description of the article or substance,— the provisions of sub-section (2) shall apply.

(2) Where the facts mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b) of the proviso to sub-section (1) are proved with respect to any words, then—

(a) for the purposes of any proceedings under section 46—

(i) if the trade mark consists solely of such words, the registration of the trade mark, so far as regards registration in respect of the article or substance in question or of any goods of the same description, shall be deemed to be an entry wrongly remaining on the register;

(ii) if the trade mark contains such words and other matter, the tribunal, in deciding whether the trade mark shall remain on the register, so far as regards registration in respect of the article or substance in question and of any goods of the same description, may, in case of a decision in favour of its remaining on the register, require as a condition thereof that the proprietor shall disclaim any right to the exclusive use in relation to that article or substance and any goods of the same description, of such words, provided that no disclaimer shall affect any rights of the proprietor of a trade mark except such as arise out of the registration of the trade mark in respect of which the disclaimer is made;

(b) for the purposes of any other legal proceedings relating to the trade mark,—

(i) if the trade mark consists solely of such words, all rights of the proprietor under this Act or any other law to the exclusive use of the trade mark in relation to the article or substance in question or to any goods of the same description, or

(ii) if the trade mark contains such words and other matter, all such rights of the proprietor to the exclusive use of such words, in such relation as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have ceased on the date at which the use mentioned in clause (a) of the proviso to sub-section (1) first became well-known and established, or at the expiration of the period of two years mentioned in clause (b) of the said proviso.

CHAPTER V.

ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSMISSION.

Power of registered proprietor to assign and give receipts.

28. The person for the time being entered in the register as proprietor of a trade mark shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and to any rights appearing from the register to be vested in any other person, have power to assign the trade mark, and to give effectual receipts for any consideration for such assignment.

Assignability of registered trade marks.

29. Notwithstanding anything in any other law to the contrary, a registered trade mark shall, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, be assignable and transmissible whether in connection with the goodwill of a business or not, and in respect of either of all of the goods in respect of which it is registered or of some only of those goods.

Assignability of unregistered trade marks.

30. An unregistered trade mark shall be assignable and transmissible whether in connection with the goodwill of a business or not:

Provided that, except in connection with the goodwill of a business, assignment or transmission shall be permissible only if—

(a) at the time of assignment or transmission of the unregistered trade mark it is used in the same business as a registered trade mark, and

(b) the registered trade mark is assigned or transmitted at the same time and to the same person as the unregistered trade mark, and

(c) the unregistered trade mark relates to goods in respect of which the registered trade mark is assigned or transmitted.

Restrictions on assignment or transmission where multiple exclusive rights would be created.

31. (1) Notwithstanding anything in sections 29 and 30, a trade mark shall not be assignable or transmissible in a case in which as a result of the assignment or transmission there would in the circumstances subsist, whether under this Act or any other law, exclusive rights in more than one of the persons concerned to the use, in relation to the same goods or description of goods, of trade marks nearly resembling each other or of identical trade marks, if, having regard to the similarity of the goods and of the trade marks, the use of the trade marks in exercise of those rights would be likely to deceive or cause confusion:

Provided that an assignment or transmission shall not be deemed to be invalid under this sub-section if the exclusive rights subsisting as a result thereof in the persons concerned respectively are, having regard to limitations imposed thereon, such as not to be exercisable by two or more of those persons in relation to goods to be sold, or otherwise traded in, within British India (otherwise than for export therefrom) or in relation to goods to be exported to the same market outside British India.

(2) The proprietor of a registered trade mark who proposes to assign it may submit to the Registrar in the prescribed manner a statement of case setting out the circumstances and the Registrar may issue to him a certificate stating whether, having regard to the similarity of the goods and of the trade marks referred to in the case, the proposed assignment would or would not be invalid under sub-section (1), and a certificate so issued shall, subject to appeal and unless it is shown that the certificate was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation, be conclusive as to the validity or invalidity under sub-section (1) of the assignment in so far as such validity or invalidity depends upon the facts set out in the case, but, as regards a certificate in favour of validity, only if application for the registration under section 35 of the title of the person becoming entitled is made within six months from the date on which the certificate is issued.

Restrictions on assignment or transmission when exclusive rights would be created in different parts of British India.

32. Notwithstanding anything in sections 29 and 30, a trade mark shall not be assignable or transmissible in a case in which as a result of the assignment or transmission there would in the circumstances subsist, whether under this Act or any other law, an exclusive right in one of the persons concerned to the use of the trade mark limited to use in relation to goods to be sold, or otherwise traded in, in any place in British India and an exclusive right in another of these persons to the use of a trade mark nearly resembling the first-mentioned trade mark or of an identical trade mark in relation to the same goods or description of goods limited to use in relation to goods to be sold, or otherwise traded in, in any other place in British India:

Provided that in any such case, on application in the prescribed manner by the proprietor of a trade mark who proposes to assign it, or by a person who claims that a registered trade mark has been transmitted to him or to a predecessor in title of his since the commencement of this Act, the Registrar, if he is satisfied that in all the circumstances the use of the trade mark in exercise of the said rights would not be contrary to the public interest, may approve the assignment or transmission, and an assignment or transmission so approved shall not, unless it is shown that the approval was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation, be deemed to be invalid under this section or section 31 if application for the registration under section 35 of the title of the person becoming entitled is made within six months from the date on which the approval is given or, in the case of a transmission, was made before that date.

Conditions for assignment otherwise than in connection with the goodwill of a business.

33. Where an assignment in respect of any goods of a trade mark which is at the time of the assignment used in a business in those goods, is made after the commencement of this Act otherwise than in connection with the goodwill of that business, the assignment shall not take effect unless the assignee, not later than the expiration of six months from the date on which the assignment is made or within such extended period, if any, as the Registrar may allow, applies to the Registrar for directions with respect to the advertisement of the assignment, and advertises it in such form and manner and within such period as the Registrar may direct.

Conditions for assignment and transmission of certification of trade marks and associated trade marks.

34. (1) A certification trade mark shall not be assignable or transmissible otherwise than with the consent of the Central Government, for which application shall be made in writing in the prescribed manner through the Registrar.

(2) Associated trade marks shall be assignable and transmissible only as a whole and not separately.

Registration of assignments and transmissions.

35. (1) Where a person becomes entitled by assignment or transmission to a registered trade mark, he shall apply in the prescribed manner to the Registrar to register his title, and the Registrar shall on receipt of the application and on proof of title to his satisfaction, register him as the proprietor of the trade mark in respect of the goods in respect of which the assignment or transmission has effect, and shall cause particulars of the assignment or transmission to be entered on the register.

(2) Except for the purposes of an appeal against a decision of the Registrar under sub-section (1) or of an application under section 46, a document or instrument in respect of which no entry has been made in the register in accordance with sub-section (1) shall not be admitted in evidence before any tribunal in proof of the title to a trade mark unless the tribunal otherwise directs.

CHAPTER VI.

USE OF TRADE MARKS AND REGISTERED USERS.

Proposed use of trade mark by company to be formed.

36. (1) No application for the registration of a trade mark in respect of any goods shall be refused, nor shall permission for such registration be withheld, on the ground only that it appears that the applicant does not use or propose to use the trade mark, if the Registrar is satisfied that a company is about to be formed and registered under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, and that the applicant intends to assign the trade mark to that company with a view to the use thereof in relation to those goods by the company. VII of 1913

(2) The tribunal may, in a case to which sub-section (1) applies, require the applicant to give security for the costs of any proceedings relative to any opposition or appeal, and in default of such security being duly given may treat the application as abandoned.

(3) Where in a case to which sub-section (1) applies, a trade mark in respect of any goods is registered in the name of an applicant who relies on intention to assign to a company, then, unless within such period as may be prescribed, or within such further period not exceeding six months as the Registrar may, on application being made to him in the prescribed manner, allow, the company has been registered as the proprietor of the trade mark in respect of those goods, the registration shall cease to have effect in respect thereof at the expiration of that period, and the Registrar shall amend the register accordingly.

Removal from register and imposition of limitations on ground of non-use.

37. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 38, a registered trade mark may be taken off the register in respect of any of the goods in respect of which it is registered on application in the prescribed manner by any person aggrieved to a High Court or to the Registrar, on the ground either—

(a) that the trade mark was registered without any bona fide intention on the part of the applicant for registration that it should be used in relation to those goods by him or, in a case to which the provisions of section 36 apply, by the company concerned, and that there has in fact been no bona fide use of the trade mark in relation to those goods by any proprietor thereof for the time being up to a date one month before the date of the application; or

(b) that up to a date one month before the date of the application, a continuous period of five years or longer elapsed during which the trade mark was registered and during which there was no bona fide use thereof in relation to those goods by any proprietor thereof for the time being:

Provided that, except where the applicant has been permitted under sub-section (2) of section 10 to register an identical or nearly resembling trade mark in respect of the goods in question or where the tribunal is of opinion that he might properly be permitted so to register such a trade mark the tribunal may refuse an application made under clause (a) or clause (b) in relation to any goods, if it is shown that there has been, before the relevant date or during the relevant period, as the case may be, bona fide use of the trade mark by any proprietor thereof for the time being in relation to goods of the same description, being goods in respect of which the trade mark is registered.

(2) Where in relation to any goods in respect of which a trade mark is registered—

(a) the circumstances referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) are shown to exist so far as regards non-use of the trade mark in relation to goods to be sold, or otherwise traded in, in a particular place in British India (otherwise than for export from British India), or in relation to goods to be exported to a particular market outside British India, and

(b) a person has been permitted under sub-section (2) of section 10 to register an identical or nearly resembling trade mark in respect of those goods under a registration extending to use in relation to goods to be so sold, or otherwise traded in, or in relation to goods to be so exported, or the tribunal is of opinion that he might properly be permitted so to register such a trade mark, on application by that person in the prescribed manner to a High Court or to the Registrar, the tribunal may impose on the registration of the first-mentioned trade mark such limitations as it thinks proper for securing that that registration shall cease to extend to such use.

(3) An applicant shall not be entitled to rely for the purpose of clause (b) of sub-section (1) or of sub-section (2) on any non-use of a trade mark which is shown to have been due to special circumstances in the trade and not to any intention to abandon or not to use the trade mark in relation to the goods to which the application relates.

Defensive registration of well-known trade marks.

38. (1) Where a trade mark consisting of any invented word has become so well-known as respects any goods in relation to which it is registered and has been used, that the use thereof in relation to other goods would be likely to be taken as indicating a connection in the course of trade between those goods and a person entitled to use the trade mark in relation to the first-mentioned goods, then, notwithstanding that the proprietor registered in respect of the first-mentioned goods does not use or propose to use the trade mark in relation to those other goods and notwithstanding anything in section 37, the trade mark may on application in the prescribed manner by such proprietor be registered in his name in respect of those other goods as a defensive trade mark and, while so registered, shall not be liable to be taken off the register in respect of those goods under the said section.

(2) The registered proprietor of a trade mark may apply for the registration thereof in respect of any goods as a defensive trade mark notwithstanding that it is already registered in his name in respect of those goods otherwise than as a defensive trade mark, or may apply for the registration thereof in respect of any goods otherwise than as a defensive trade mark notwithstanding that it is already registered in his name in respect of those goods as a defensive trade mark, in lieu in each case of the existing registration.

(3) A trade mark registered as a defensive trade mark and that trade mark as otherwise registered in the name of the same proprietor shall, notwithstanding that the respective registrations are in respect of different goods, be deemed to be, and shall be registered as, associated trade marks.

(4) On application in the prescribed manner by any person aggrieved to a High Court or to the Registrar, the registration of a trade mark as a defensive trade mark may be cancelled on the ground that the requirements of sub-section (1) are no longer satisfied in respect of any goods in relation to which the trade mark is registered in the name of the same proprietor otherwise than as a defensive trade mark, or may be cancelled as respects any goods in relation to which it is registered as a defensive trade mark on the ground that there is no longer any likelihood that the use of the trade mark in relation to those goods would be taken as giving the indication mentioned in sub-section (1).

(5) The Registrar may at any time cancel the registration as a defensive trade mark of a trade mark of which there is no longer any registration in the name of the same proprietor otherwise than as a defensive trade mark.

(6) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section, the provisions of this Act shall apply in respect of the registration of trade marks as defensive trade marks and of trade marks so registered as they apply in other cases.

Registered users.

39. (1) A person other than the proprietor of a trade mark may be registered as a registered user thereof in respect of all or any of the goods in respect of which it is registered (otherwise than as a defensive trade mark) and either with or without conditions or restrictions.

(2) The permitted use of a trade mark shall be deemed to be use by the proprietor thereof, and shall be deemed not to be use by a person other than the proprietor, for any purpose for which such use is material under this Act or any other law.

Power of registered user to take proceedings against infringement.

40. (1) Subject to any agreement subsisting between the parties, a registered user of a trade mark shall be entitled to call upon the proprietor thereof to take proceedings to prevent infringement thereof, and if the proprietor refuses or neglects to do so within three months after being so called upon, the registered user may institute proceedings for infringement in his own name as if he were the proprietor, making the proprietor a defendant.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, a proprietor so added as defendant shall not be liable for any costs unless he enters an appearance and takes part in the proceedings.

Application for registration as registered user.

41. (1) Where it is proposed that a person should be registered as a registered user of a trade mark, the proprietor and the proposed registered user shall make application in writing to the Registrar in the prescribed manner accompanied by an affidavit made by the proprietor, or by some person authorised to the satisfaction of the Registrar to act on his behalf,—

(a) giving particulars of the relationship, existing or proposed, between the proprietor and the proposed registered user, including particulars showing the degree of control by the proprietor over the permitted use which their relationship will confer and whether it is a term of their relationship that the proposed registered user shall be the sole registered user or that there shall be any other restriction as to persons for whose registration as registered users application may be made;

(b) stating the goods in respect of which registration is proposed;

(c) stating any conditions or restrictions proposed with respect to the characteristics of the goods, to the mode or place of permitted use, or to any other matter;

(d) stating whether the permitted use is to be for a period or without limit of period, and, if for a period, the duration thereof;

and by such further documents, information or evidence as may be required by the Registrar or as may be prescribed.

(2) When the requirements of sub-section (1) have been complied with, if the Registrar is satisfied that in all the circumstances the use of the trade mark in respect of the proposed goods or any of them by the proposed registered user subject to any conditions or restrictions which the Registrar may think proper, would not be contrary to the public interest, the Registrar may register, subject as aforesaid, the proposed registered user as a registered user in respect of the goods as to which he is so satisfied.

(3) The Registrar shall refuse an application under this section if it appears to him that the grant thereof would tend to facilitate trafficking in a trade mark.

(4) The Registrar shall, if so requested by an applicant, take steps for securing that information given for the purposes of an application under this section (other than matter entered in the register) is not disclosed to rivals in trade.

(5) The Registrar shall issue notice in the prescribed manner—

(a) of the registration of a person as a registered user, to any other registered user of the trade mark;

(b) of an application under section 42, to the registered proprietor, and each registered user, (not being the applicant) of the trade mark.

Power to Registrar to vary or cancel registration as registered user.

42. Without prejudice to the provisions of section 46, the registration of a person as a registered user—

(a) may be varied by the Registrar as regards the goods in respect of which, or any conditions or restrictions subject to which, it has effect, on the application in writing in the prescribed manner of the registered proprietor of the trade mark;

(b) may be cancelled by the Registrar on the application in writing in the prescribed manner of the registered proprietor or of the registered user or of any other registered user of the trade mark;

(c) may be cancelled by the Registrar on the application in writing in the prescribed manner of any person on any of the following grounds, namely:—

(i) that the registered user has used the trade mark otherwise than by way of the permitted use, or in such a way as to cause or to be likely to cause, deception or confusion;

(ii) that the proprietor or the registered user misrepresented, or failed to disclose, some fact material to the application for the registration, or that the circumstances have materially changed since the date of the registration;

(iii) that the registration ought not to have been effected having regard to rights vested in the applicant by virtue of a contract in the performance of which he is interested;

(d) may be cancelled by the Registrar in respect of any goods in relation to which the trade mark is no longer registered.

Registered user not to have right of assignment or transmission.

43. Nothing in this Act shall confer on a registered user of a trade mark any assignable or transmissible right to the use thereof.

Use of one of associated or substantially identical trade marks equivalent to use of another.

44. (1) Where under the provisions of this Act use of a registered trade mark is required to be proved for any purpose, the tribunal may, if and so far as it shall think right, accept use of a registered associated trade mark, or of the trade mark with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity, as an equivalent for the use required to be proved.

(2) The use of the whole of a registered trade mark shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be also a use of any trade mark being a part thereof and registered in accordance with sub-section (1) of section 11 in the name of the same proprietor.

Use of trade mark for export trade, and use when form of trade connection changes.

45. (1) The application in British India of a trade mark to goods to be exported from British India, and any other act done in British India in relation to goods to be so exported which, if done in relation to goods to be sold or otherwise traded in within British India would constitute use of a trade mark therein, shall be deemed to constitute use of the trade mark in relation to those goods for any purpose for which such use is material under this Act or any other law.

(2) The use of a registered trade mark in relation to goods between which and the person using the mark any form of connection in the course of trade subsists shall not be deemed to be likely to cause deception or confusion on the ground only that the mark has been or is used in relation to goods between which and the person using the mark or any predecessor in his business different form of connection in the course of trade subsisted or subsists.

CHAPTER VII.

RECTIFICATION AND CORRECTION OF THE REGISTER.

Power to cancel or vary registration and to rectify the register.

46. (1) On application in the prescribed manner by any person aggrieved to a High Court or to the Registrar, the tribunal may make such order as it may think fit for cancelling or varying the registration of a trade mark on the ground of any contravention of, or failure to observe a condition entered on the register in relation thereto.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the absence or omission from the register of any entry, or by any entry made in the register without sufficient cause, or by any entry wrongly remaining on the register, or by any error or defect in any entry in the register, may apply in the prescribed manner to a High Court or to the Registrar, and the tribunal may make such order for making, expunging or varying the entry as it may think fit.

(3) The tribunal may in any proceeding under this section decide any question that it may be necessary or expedient to decide in connection with the rectification of the register.

(4) A High Court or the Registrar, of its or his own motion, may, after giving notice in the prescribed manner to the parties concerned and after giving them an opportunity of being heard, make any order referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2).

(5) Any order of the Court rectifying the register shall direct that notice of the rectification shall be served upon the Registrar in the prescribed manner who shall upon receipt of such notice rectify the register accordingly.

Correction of register.

47. (1) The Registrar may, on application made in the prescribed manner by the registered proprietor,—

(a) correct any error in the name, address or description of the registered proprietor of a trade mark;

(b) enter any change in the name, address or description of the person who is registered as proprietor of a trade mark;

(c) cancel the entry of a trade mark on the register;

(d) strike out any goods or classes of goods from those in respect of which a trade mark is registered;

(e) enter a disclaimer or memorandum relating to a trade mark which does not in any way extend the rights given by the existing registration of the trade mark.

(2) The Registrar may, on application made in the prescribed manner by a registered user of a trade mark, correct any error, or enter any change, in the name, address or description of the registered user.

Alteration of registered trade mark.

48. (1) The registered proprietor of a trade mark may apply in the prescribed manner to the Registrar for leave to add to or alter the trade mark in any manner not substantially affecting the identity thereof, and the Registrar may refuse leave or may grant it on such terms and subject to such limitations as he may think fit.

(2) The Registrar may cause an application under this section to be advertised in the prescribed manner in any case where it appears to him that it is expedient so to do, and where he does so, if within the prescribed time from the date of the advertisement any person gives notice to the Registrar in the prescribed manner of opposition to the application, the Registrar shall, after hearing the parties if so required, decide the matter.

(3) Where leave is granted under this section, the trade mark as altered shall be advertised in the prescribed manner, unless the application has already been advertised under sub-section (2).

Adaptation of entries in register to amended or substituted classification of goods.

49. (1) The Registrar shall not, in exercise of any power conferred on him under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 84, make any amendment of the register which would have the effect of adding any goods or classes of goods to those in respect of which a trade mark is registered (whether in one or more classes) immediately before the amendment is to be made, or of antedating the registration of a trade mark in respect of any goods:

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply when the Registrar is satisfied that compliance therewith would involve undue complexity and that the addition or antedating, as the case may be, would not affect any substantial quantity of goods and would not substantially prejudice the rights of any person.

(2) A proposal so to amend the register shall be notified to the registered proprietor of the trade mark affected and advertised in the prescribed manner, and may be opposed before the Registrar by any person aggrieved on the ground that the proposed amendment contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1).

CHAPTER VIII.

CERTIFICATION TRADE MARKS.

Provisions of this Act applicable to certification trade marks.

50. Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, the other provisions of this Act except sections 6, 21, 22, 31, 32, 33, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42 and 43 and sub-section (2) of section 45 shall apply to certification trade marks as they apply to trade marks.

Certification trade mark not to be registered in name of person trading in goods certified thereby.

51. A mark shall not be registrable as a certification trade mark in the name of a person who carries on a trade in goods of the kind certified.

Determination whether a mark is a certification trade mark.

52. In determining whether a mark is adapted to distinguish in accordance with the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 2, the tribunal may have regard to the extent to which—

(a) the mark is inherently so adapted to distinguish in relation to the goods in question; and

(b) by reason of the use of the mark or of any other circumstances, the mark is in fact so adapted to distinguish in relation to the goods in question.

Application for registration.

53. (1) An application for the registration of a mark as a certification trade mark shall be made to the Registrar in writing in the prescribed manner by the person proposed to be registered as the proprietor thereof, and accompanied by a draft of the regulations to be deposited under section 56.

(2) The provisions of section 14 shall have effect in relation to an application under this section as they have effect in relation to an application under the said section, except that for references therein to acceptance of an application there shall be substituted references to authorisation to proceed with the application.

(3) In dealing under the said provisions with an application under this section, the tribunal shall have regard to the like considerations, so far as relevant, as if the application were an application under section 14 and to any other considerations (not being matters within the competence of the Central Government under section 54) relevant to applications under this section, including the desirability of securing that a certification trade mark shall comprise some indication that it is a certification trade mark.

Consideration of application for registration by Central Government.

54. When authorisation to proceed with an application under section 53 has been given, the Registrar shall forward the application to the Central Government who shall consider the application with regard to the following matters, namely:—

(a) whether the applicant is competent to certify the goods in respect of which the mark is to be registered;

(b) whether the draft of the regulations to be deposited under section 56 is satisfactory;

(c) whether in all the circumstances the registration applied for would be to the public advantage;

and may either—

(i) direct that the application shall not be accepted; or

(ii) direct the Registrar to accept the application and approve the said draft of the regulations either without modification and unconditionally or subject to any conditions or limitations, or to any amendments or modifications of the application or of the regulations, which it thinks requisite having regard to any of the said matters;

but, except in the case of a direction for acceptance and approval without modification and unconditionally, the Central Government shall not decide the matter without giving to the applicant an opportunity of being heard:

Provided that the Central Government may, at the request of the applicant made with the concurrence of the Registrar, consider the application with regard to any of the said matters before authorisation to proceed with the application has been given, so however that the Central Government shall be at liberty to reconsider any matter on which it has given a decision under this proviso if any amendment or modification is thereafter made in the application or in the draft of the regulations.

Opposition to registration.

55. (1) When an application has been accepted, the Registrar shall, as soon as may be thereafter, cause the application as accepted to be advertised in the prescribed manner, and the provisions of section 15 shall have effect in relation to the registration of the mark as if the application had been an application under section 14:

Provided that, in deciding under the said provisions the tribunal shall have regard only to the considerations referred to in sub-section (3) of section 53, and a decision under the said provisions in favour of the applicant shall be conditional on the determination in his favour by the Central Government under sub-section (2) of this section of any opposition relating to any of the matters referred to in section 54

(2) When notice of opposition is given relating to any of the matters referred to in section 54, the Central Government shall, after hearing the parties, if so required, and considering any evidence, decide whether, and subject to what conditions or limitations or amendments or modifications, if any, of the application or of the regulations to be deposited under section 56, registration is, having regard to those matters, to be permitted.

Deposit of regulations governing the use of a certification trade mark.

56. (1) There shall be deposited at the Patent Office in respect of every mark registered as a certification trade mark regulations approved by the Central Government for governing the use thereof, which shall include provisions as to the cases in which the proprietor is to certify goods and to authorise the use of the certification trade mark, and may contain any other provisions which the Central Government may by general or special order require or permit to be inserted therein (including provisions conferring a right of appeal to the Registrar against any refusal of the proprietor to certify goods or to authorise the use of the certification trade mark in accordance with the regulations); and regulations so deposited shall be open to inspection in like manner as the register.

(2) The regulations so deposited may on the application of the registered proprietor be altered by the Registrar with the consent of the Central Government.

(3) The Central Government may cause such application to be advertised in any case where it appears to it expedient so to do, and where it does so, if within the time specified in the advertisement any person gives notice of opposition to the applicant, the Central Government shall not decide the matter without giving the parties an opportunity of being heard.

Right conferred by registration.

57. Subject to the provisions of sections 25, 26 and 58, the registration of a person as proprietor of a certification trade mark in respect of any goods shall, if valid, give to that person the exclusive right to the use of the certification trade mark in relation to those goods, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, that right shall be deemed to be infringed by any person who, not being the proprietor of the mark or a person authorised by him in that behalf under the regulations deposited under section 56, using it in accordance therewith, uses a mark identical with it or so nearly resembling it as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion, in the course of trade, in relation to any goods in respect of which it is registered, and in such manner as to render the use of the mark likely to be taken either—

(a) as being use as a certification trade mark; or

(b) to import a reference to some person having the right either as proprietor, or by his authorisation under the said regulations, to use the mark, or to goods certified by the proprietor.

No infringement in certain circumstances.

58. (1) The right to the use of a certification trade mark given under section 57 by registration shall be subject to any conditions or limitations entered on the register, and shall not be deemed to be infringed by the use of any such mark as aforesaid in any mode, in relation to goods to be sold or otherwise traded in in any place, in relation to goods to be exported to any market, or in any other circumstances, to which having regard to any such limitations, the registration does not extend.

(2) The said right to the use of a certification trade mark shall not be deemed to be infringed by the use of any such mark as aforesaid by any person—

(a) in relation to goods certified by the proprietor of the mark if, as to those goods or a bulk of which they form part, the proprietor or another in accordance with his authorisation under the relevant regulations has applied the mark and has not subsequently removed or obliterated it, or the proprietor has at any time expressly or impliedly consented to the use of the mark, or

(b) in relation to goods adapted to form part of, or to be accessory to, other goods in relation to which the mark has been used without infringement of the right given as aforesaid or might for the time being be so used, if the use of the mark is reasonably necessary in order to indicate that the goods are so adapted and neither the purpose nor the effect of the use of the mark is to indicate otherwise than in accordance with the fact that the goods are certified by the proprietor:

Provided that clause (a) shall not apply to the case of use consisting of the application of any such mark as aforesaid to any goods, notwithstanding that they are such goods as are mentioned in that clause if such application is contrary to the said regulations.

(3) Where a certification trade mark is one of two or more registered certification trade marks which are identical or nearly resemble each other, the use of any of those marks in exercise of the right to the use of that mark given by registration, shall not be deemed to be an infringement of the right so given to the use of any other of those marks.

Cancellation or varying of registration.

59. (1) The Central Government may, on the application in the prescribed manner of any person aggrieved or on the recommendation of the Registrar, and after giving the proprietor an opportunity of opposing the application or recommendation, make such order as it thinks fit for expunging or varying any entry in the register relating to a certification trade mark, or for varying the deposited regulations, on any of the following grounds, namely:—

(a) that the proprietor is no longer competent, in the case of any of the goods in respect of which the mark is registered, to certify those goods;

(b) that the proprietor has failed to observe any provision of the deposited regulations to be observed on his part;

(c) that it is no longer to the public advantage that the mark should be registered;

(d) that it is requisite for the public advantage that, if the mark remains registered, the regulations should be varied; and neither a High Court nor the Registrar shall have any jurisdiction to make an order under section 46 on any of those grounds.

(2) The Registrar shall rectify the register and the deposited regulations in such manner as may be requisite for giving effect to an order made under sub-section (1).

Costs not to be awarded in certain cases.

60. The Registrar shall have no power to award costs to or against any party on an appeal to him against a refusal of the proprietor of a certification trade mark to certify goods or to authorise the use of the mark.

Decisions of Central Government to be final.

61. Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Chapter, every decision of the Central Government under this Chapter shall be final.

CHAPTER IX.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR TEXTILE GOODS.

62. The Central Government shall prescribe classes of goods (in this Chapter referred to as textile goods) to the trade marks used in relation to which the provisions of this Chapter shall apply; and subject to the said provisions, the other provisions of this Act shall apply to such trade marks as they apply to trade marks used in relation to other classes of goods.

63. (1) There shall be established at Bombay, for the purpose of facilitating the registration of trade marks in respect of textile goods, a branch of the Trade Marks Registry. The officer in charge of the branch shall be called the Deputy Registrar.

(2) There shall be kept at the said branch for the purposes of this Act a record called the Textile Marks Record wherein shall be entered copies of all entries in the register relating to trade marks registered in respect of textile goods and the said record shall at all convenient times be open to the inspection of the public, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed.

(3) Trade marks in respect of textile goods of which registration has been refused shall be entered in a list called the Refused Textile Marks List, a copy of which shall be kept at the said branch, and the list and the said copy shall at all convenient times be open to the inspection of the public, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed.

Restrictions on registration of piece goods.

64. In respect of textile goods being piece goods—

(a) no mark consisting of a line heading alone shall be registrable as a trade mark;

(b) a line heading shall not be deemed to be adapted to distinguish;

(c) the registration of a trade mark shall not give any exclusive right to the use of a line heading;

(d) the registration of letters or numerals, or any combination thereof, shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed.

Registration.

65. (1) Applications for the registration of a trade mark in respect of textile goods may be made either to the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar at the option of the applicant.

(2) In respect of all trade marks, applications for registration of which are duly made to the Deputy Registrar under this chapter, the Deputy Registrar shall exercise all the powers of the Registrar under this Act but shall be subject to the general superintendence of the Registrar.

Advisory Committees.

66. (1) The Central Government may in the prescribed manner constitute one or more Advisory Committees of persons versed in the usages of the textile trade for the purpose of this section.

(2) The Registrar or the Deputy Registrar shall consult any such Committee with respect to any circumstances peculiar to the textile trade arising on an application to register a trade mark in respect of textile goods.

(3) The place of meeting and the conduct of business of such Committees shall be determined by rules made under this Act.

CHAPTER X.

Penalty for falsely representing a trade mark as registered.

68. (1) From such date, not being earlier than one year from the commencement of this Act, as the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint in this behalf, no person shall make any representation—

(a) with respect to a mark not being a registered trade mark, to the effect that it is a registered trade mark; or

(b) with respect to a part of a registered trade mark not being a part separately registered as a trade mark, to the effect that it is separately registered as a trade mark; or

(c) to the effect that a registered trade mark is registered in respect of any goods in respect of which it is not in fact registered; or

(d) to the effect that the registration of a trade mark gives an exclusive right to the use thereof in any circumstances in which, having regard to limitations entered on the register, the registration does not in fact give that right.

(2) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1), he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the use in British India in relation to a trade mark of the word "registered", or of any other expression referring whether expressly or impliedly to registration, shall be deemed to import a reference to registration in the register, except—

(a) where that word or other expression is used in direct association with other words delineated in characters at least as large as those in which that word or other expression is delineated and indicating that the reference is to registration as a trade mark under the law of a country outside British India, being a country under the law of which the registration referred to is in fact in force; or

(b) where that other expression is of itself such as to indicate that the reference is to such registration as is mentioned in clause (a); or

(c) where that word is used in relation to a mark registered as a trade mark under the law of a country outside British India and in relation solely to goods to be exported to that country.

Restraint of use of Royal Arms and State emblems.

69. If a person, without due authority uses in connection with any trade, business, calling or profession—

Repeal of Ordinance IX of 1939.

10. The Income-tax (Removal of Difficulties and Validating) Ordinance, 1939, is hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The main object of this Bill is to legislate permanently for the matter dealt with by the Income-tax (Removal of Difficulties and Validating) Ordinance, 1939. The issue of this Ordinance was necessitated by a recent decision of the Bombay High Court regarding the jurisdiction of certain Income-tax Officers.

The second object is to provide for the provisional collection of income-tax and super-tax in case the Finance Bill has not been passed by the Legislature by the 1st April of any year.

The Bill also provides for the calculation of depreciation in respect of ocean-going ships on the basis of the cost of the assets instead of on the written-down value of the assets.

In addition to the above points, a few minor defects in the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, as amended by the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act of 1939, are also dealt with.

A. J. RAISMAN.

NEW DELHI;
The 9th February, 1940.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—Sub-clause (iii) of clause (b) of section 11 of the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1939, has not yet come into force. The amendment which it is desired to make in section 10 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, is accordingly being effected by an amendment of the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1939, and will not take effect until, as provided in section 1(2) of that Act, this portion of section 11 of the Act takes effect. The amendment is intended to secure that in the case of shipping companies alone, when the change over from the cost basis of depreciation to the written-down value basis takes place, the cost basis shall be retained.

Clause 3.—This corrects an obvious mistake in section 35 where no provision is made for the correction of a mistake in a refund order.

Clause 4.—Sub-clause (a) corrects the omission to provide for the disclosure of confidential information to the professional bodies on whom the duty of taking disciplinary action under sub-section (3) of section 61 of the Act may fall. Sub-clause (b) corrects a printing error.

Clause 5.—This corrects an oversight in section 58S. It is improper that refunded contributions should be charged with super-tax as they were not exempted from super-tax in the first instance.

Clauses 6 and 9—reproduce the provisions of the Income-tax (Removal of Difficulties and Validating) Ordinance, 1939, which is limited in duration to six months.

Clause 7—makes the necessary provision for the provisional collection of income-tax and super-tax where the Finance Bill has not been passed by the Legislature by the 1st day of April.

Clause 8.—There is a defect in paragraph (b) of the second rule of the Schedule. The rule as it stands takes no account of the fact that the starting point of a computation may be a deficit.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Since 1929, when the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research was established as a result of a recommendation of the Royal Commission on Agriculture in India, the Central Government have provided grants aggregating Rs. 84 lakhs for expenditure by the Council on schemes of general research. The Council has practically no source of income other than the contributions from the Central Revenues, which are unstable depending on the state of the finances of the Central Government. The grants so far received though not inconsiderable have proved insufficient to meet the growing requirements of the research necessary to serve a vast agricultural country like India. In order to place the Council in a more secure financial position and to provide for the steady development of research a larger and more stable income which would comparatively be unaffected by the financial vicissitudes of the Central Government is considered necessary. The Governing Body accordingly approved a proposal in July, 1939, to obtain funds from an export cess, levied at the rate of ½ per cent. on the value of certain agricultural commodities which are not already subject to an export duty or cess. The proceeds of the proposed cess are estimated to amount in a normal year to about Rs. 14 lakhs. The Bill is designed to implement this proposal.

BILL

Further to amend the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920, for the purpose hereinafter appearing ; It is hereby enacted as follows :— XL of 1920.

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Aligarh Muslim University (Amendment) Act, 193 .

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint.

Amendment of section 12A, Act XL of 1920.

2. In section 12A of the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920, the words "Intermediate Colleges and" and the words "in the Aligarh District" shall be omitted. XL of 1920.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920 as it stands on the Statute book at present, debars the University from recognising schools outside the Aligarh District. It has always been the aim of the University to have outside schools under its fold and it is with this object that it is proposed to amend section 12A of the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920 in order to bring it to the level of the Benares Hindu University. As the intermediate classes now form part of the University and there is no separate Intermediate College advantage has been taken to delete the words "Intermediate Colleges" in section 12A.

1. The Bengal Children Act extends to the town of Calcutta, the suburbs and the port of Calcutta, the municipality of Howrah, the police-station of Bally, Jagacha, Sankrail and Domjur in the district of Howrah and the police-station of Baranagar, Barrackpore, Tittagarh, Noapara, Khardah, Naihati and Jagatdal in the district of the 24-Parganas. The following sections of the Act have not yet been brought into force in any part of Bengal:—

Section 27(2), (a), (b), (c), (d) and (f).
Section 28 (2).

The Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act is in force in the town, suburbs and port of Calcutta and at Panihati in the district of the 24-Parganas.

The Reformatory Schools Act applies to that part of the province in which the Bengal Children Act is not in force.

Boy offenders dealt with by Courts in the Children Act area are sent to the Reformatory and Industrial Schools at Alipore and those from outside this area to the Reformatory School at Hazaribagh in the Province of Bihar under the provisions of the Reformatory Schools Act.

2. During the year 1938, 4,007 children were dealt with by the Central Children Court, Calcutta. The great majority of these were sent up for offences under section 66 of the Calcutta Police Act; 26 were prosecuted under the Bengal Children Act, 23 under the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act and about 200 for theft and similar offences under the Indian Penal Code.

Eighty of these children were sent to a school or other place of custody, distributed as follows:—

Reformatory School, Alipore	... ...	50
Industrial School, Alipore	... ...	16
Gobinda Kumar Home, Panihati	... ...	6
Salvation Army Home, Behala	... ...	5
Society for the Protection of Children in India	...	1
All-Bengal Women's Industrial Home	... ...	2
Total		80

Others were fined or made over to their guardians, while most of those sent up under the Police Act were warned and discharged.

3. The Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Alipore, which are for boys only, are wholly maintained by Government. The Salvation Army Women's Industrial Home at Behala, an aided institution, provides a Reformatory School for girls.

The following have been notified as places of suitable custody under section 28(1) of the Bengal Children Act and under section 27(2)(b) of the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act:—

(a) The Gobinda Kumar Home, Panihati.

(b) The Salvation Army Women's Industrial Home, Behala.

4. The Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, continued to be the Chief Inspector of Reformatory and Industrial Schools; Khan Bahadur T. Ahmad and Mr. R. G. P. S. Fairburn were the Assistant Inspectors. The Inspectress of Schools, Presidency and Burdwan Divisions, was the Assistant Inspector of Reformatory and Industrial Schools for Girls.

The places of suitable custody recoginsed by Government as eligible for grants are inspected by four ladies appointed for the purpose.

Administration.

5. The following is a brief summary of the activities of the various institutions working under these Acts:—

(1) Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Alipore.

These schools, which have been established by the Government under section 6(1) of the Bengal Children Act, are under the general administrative control of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, while their immediate management is vested in the Superintendent and a Managing Committee appointed under section 7(1) of the Act.

The combined institutions have accommodation for 194 boys and the entire cost is met from the Provincial Revenue.

On the 31st December 1938, the number of boys in the Reformatory School was 219 against the same number in 1937 and 213 in 1936, and in the Industrial School the number was 58 against 54 in 1937 and 59 in 1936. The total number of boys in the two schools was thus 277 as against 273 in 1937 and 272 in 1936.

The number of fresh admissions during 1938 was 74 in all, viz., 54 in the Reformatory School and 20 in the Industrial School, of whom 61 had been convicted of theft or similar offences.

One hundred and sixty-two of the boys in the two schools on the 31st December 1938 were Hindus and 111 Muslims and there were 4 Christians in the Reformatory School but none in the Industrial School. The number of Bengali-speaking boys increased from 114 to 124 while the number of Hindi-speaking boys decreased from 77 to 71. The number of Urdu-speaking boys rose from 60 to 62. Of the 277 boys in the two schools, only 124 belonged properly to Bengal while the rest were inhabitants of other provinces but were either domiciled in Bengal or had come there temporarily mainly from Bihar, Orissa and United Provinces.

Twenty-eight boys were realeased from the Reformatory School and 9 from the Industrial School on the expiry of their terms. Twenty-three of the boys of the Reformatory School and 7 of the Industrial School were released on license. Of the boys released during 1938, 19 were made over to the Bengal After-Care Association and the rest to their guardians.

Eight boys escaped from the Reformatory School and one from the Industrial School. Of the first eight, two escaped from outside hospitals to which they had been sent for treatment of Tuberculosis, two did not return after leave granted to visit their homes and the others escaped from the school premises. Two were recaptured.

Primary education is imparted up to class V and the boys also receive vocational training in tinsmithy, blacksmithy, weaving, carpentry and tailoring. The education of boys is conducted through the medium of Bengali, Urdu and Hindi in accordance with the approved syllabus. The results of the annual examinations were good. Facilities were given for moral and religious instruction and observance. As in previous years, boys whose conduct had been found to be satisfactory were allowed to visit their homes and other places of interest during holidays and on various other occasions. With the exception of one boy all others who were given this privilege returned to the school in time. This controlled freedom was found to have a very beneficial effect on the boys.

The food supplied was of good quality and the general health of the boys was good owing to the good sanitation. The boys took part in regular games and physical exercises including drill and gymnastics.

The total expenditure on the schools in 1938 was Rs. 60,244 against Rs. 56,791 in 1937, and the average cost of maintaining and educating each pupil was Rs. 223 against Rs. 208 in 1937. The schools have been doing good work under conditions which are in many respects far from ideal. Lack of space has become chronic and is preventing the proper working of the Bengal Children Act. Government have decided therefore to open a new and enlarged institution in rural surroundings near Calcutta, and a site is being acquired for the purpose.

(2) Hazaribagh Reformatory School.

The Reformatory School at Hazaribagh under the control of the Government of Bihar continued to receive youthful offenders of this Province, sent by Courts of the districts to which the provisions of the Bengal Children Act have not been extended.

During the year under review six boys who had been convicted in Bengal were discharged from the school under section 13(2) of the Reformatory School Act of 1897.

(3) Gobinda Kumar Home.

This Home is intended for the reception of Indian girls dealt with under the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act and the Bengal Children Act.

On 31st December 1938, there were 90 girls varying from 3 to 16 years of age as against 80 in 1937. All the girls were Hindus. Of them 9 belonged to other provinces and the remainder were Bengalis. There were 11 fresh admissions during the year. Of these 9 were cases under the Bengal Children Act or the Immoral Traffic Act. Two were sent to the Home by order of a Magistrate.

There is a primary school attached to the Home in which training is given up to class VI. The two top classes have been opened recently. There are 3 junior trained teachers besides the Superintendent and a matron. The girls are also taught weaving, sewing and needlework. About 80 per cent. of the girls marry.

The general health of the girls was good and their conduct satisfactory.

The cost of maintaining the Home during 1938 was Rs. 19,843 of which Rs. 8,008 was met by by Government grant. The average cost of maintaining each girl was Rs. 21 a month. Of this Rs. 10 was as usual contributed by Government in the shape of capitation grant and the balance was met from private sources.

(4) Salvation Army Women's Industrial Home for girls at Behala.

This Home also caters for Indian girls dealt with under the two Acts. Its present capacity is 110 girls. The number of girls in the Home on 31st December 1938 was 79. The average number of girls during the year was 77.

Nine girls, viz., 6 Hindus, 2 Moslems and 1 Christian varying from 13 to 17 years of age were sent to the Home by Courts during the year. Of them 8 were Bengalis. Four girls were admissions under the Bengal Children Act and the rest under the Immoral Traffic Act.

Educational progress in the Home was poor in most cases; but the health of all the girls was good during the year. The girls were taught domestic training in addition to general education.

The Home received from Government a maintenance grant of Rs. 1,200 in addition to Rs. 2,822 on account of capitation grant for the girls sent there by Courts.

The total cost incurred in the maintenance of the Home during the year was Rs. 11,416-1-4 and the cost of maintaining each girl during the year was Rs. 13-2-1. The amount contributed by the Salvation Army Fund was Rs. 8,593.

(5) The Calcutta Protestant Home (The Fendall Home).

This Home is a rescue home for European and Anglo-Indian women and girls. Girls are sent to the Home by various Churches and social bodies. A fair number of girls were sent as needing a home while looking for work, while some came there in trouble.

During the year 1938, 51 girls as against 47 in the last year left the Home; 3 were married, 24 found situations as children's nurses, 15 returned to relations, 1 secured a post as a stenographer while 8 were sent to boarding schools.

The girls in the Home do fancy work of all kinds and make tea bags, bank bags and jharans for business firms. They are paid according to the quantity and quality of the work done and the balance goes to the Home.

The health of the girls was good on the whole.

No girl dealt with under the Bengal Children or the Immoral Traffic Acts was sent to the Home during the year under review.

The Home received the usual maintenance grant of Rs. 960 from Government and its income from collections and donations amounted to Rs. 6,706-6-0 in 1938 as against Rs. 10,578 in the previous year.

(6) Society for the Protection of Children in India.

The number of children in the Society's custody on 31st December 1938 was 234, viz., 106 boys and 128 girls. The number of children who passed into its custody during the year was 61.

The Society received the usual maintenance grant of Rs. 1,600 from Government. It also received a capital grant of Rs. 10,000 for expenditure upon its hostel scheme. The total expenditure during the year amounted to Rs. 38,915-5-5.

(7) The All-Bengal Women's Union.

The All-Bengal Women's Union has been recognised by Government for the purposes of clause (c), sub-section (7) of section 4 of the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act, and also for the purposes of clauses (1) and (2) of section 14 of the same Act. The After-Care Home called "the All-Bengal Industrial Institute" at Dum Dum Cantonment, established by the Union, also caters for Indian girls dealt with under the two Acts. Its present capacity is 30 girls; and the total number of girls at the close of the year was 23. There were 2 new admissions. Both of these were Hindus and dealt with under the Immoral Traffic Act.

The inmates of the Home receive general education and they are taught weaving and needlework and are also given training as girl-guides. Two girls were boarded out for training as teachers and 3 for training as nurses at a maternity home.

The health of the girls was fairly good on the whole.

The cost of maintaining the Home during the year was about Rs. 4,000. The Union received a Government grant of Rs. 300 during the year. The average cost of maintaining a girl was Rs. 26.

(8) Borstal School, Bankura.

This school which has been established by Government under section 3(1) of the Bengal Borstal Schools Act, 1928, is under the general administrative control of the Inspector-General of Prisons, Bengal, while its immediate management is vested in the Superintendent of the School and a visiting committee. There were 263 boys remaining in the school at the commencement of the year under report against 312 in the previous year. One hundred and sixteen boys were admitted during the year against 117 in 1937 and 131 boys were discharged from all causes during the year against 166 in the previous year, leaving a balance of 248 at the close of the year.

Boys on admission are classified into several "House", "Groups" and "Grades" according to age, conduct, health and sportsmanship. These methods of classification have helped to improve the conduct of the inmates and to create a spirit of competition and a sense of corporate ideal amongst them. The general principles followed are those of the English Borstal system and every effort is made to reform these boys and return them to society as healthy and useful citizens.

The daily routine is so arranged that the inmates are actively engaged from morning till bed-time. It comprises literary and moral education, vocational, industrial and physical training.

Boys are taught reading, writing and simple arithmetic. The general standard aimed at is primary, but those who are fit for higher education are coached up to the Matriculation standard. Instruction is imparted in Bengali, Hindi, Urdu and English. They are also trained under the guidance of paid instructors in some useful industries such as tailoring, book-binding, weaving, carpentry, smithy, carpet-making, durrie-weaving, net-bag-making, cane and bamboo works, agriculture, horticulture, dairy and poultry farming. Due attention was also paid as usual to the physical culture and games of the boys. They also got regular exercises in drill, bratachari and scouting.

The boys were allowed all reasonable facilities for religious observances under the guidance of Hindu, Muhammadan and Christian religious instructors according to their respective denominations.

The visiting committee had 13 meetings in the school during the year. The members of the committee regularly visited the school and took keen interest in its welfare.

(9) Bengal After-Care Association for juveniles and adolescents.

Admissions in the hostel attached to the Association during the year 1938 were 140 as against 193 in 1937, and employment was found for 35 boys. The health of the inmates was good. Educational instruction is given in the night school. There were 21 escapes from the hostel during the year. This was partly due to the removal of the hostel outside the city. Apart from the escapes the conduct of boys in the hostel improved.

The Association received the usual maintenance grant of Rs. 2,400 from Government. The total receipts of the Association during the year under review were Rs. 6,105-2 against an expenditure of Rs. 6,252-9-3.

The mofussil work of the Association is under-taken by several District Associations. There are Associations in the district of Bankura, Birbhum, Khulna, Midnapore, Mymensingh and Dinajpur. The work done by the Mymensingh District Association was particularly creditable.

Probation work.

During the year 1938, 319 children, dealt with under the Bengal Children Act and the Immoral Traffic Act, were on proabtion under the charge of four probation officers (two males and two females) against 351 in the previous year.

Probationers were visited at regular intervals and their conduct and progress were carefully watched by the probation officers, who by keeping in personal touch with their charges and by means of friendly advice and moral persuasion tried to bring about a new and healthy outlook of life amongst them. Most of the probationers have been making satisfactory progress and it may be reasonably expected that many of them will turn out to be useful members of society.

Probation officers had also to make initial inquiries into the antecedents, relations, conduct, etc., of all the accused tried in the Juvenile Court. They maintained records of every case, prepared monthly reports and charts which were shown to the Magistrate.

The Presidency Magistrate of the Central Children Court visited probationers from time to time for the purpose of gaining personal knowledge regarding them and the work done by the probation officers.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1270A.—11th April 1940.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 241 of the Government of India Act, 1935, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, the Governor is pleased to make the following rules:—

The Bengal Services Recruitment (Communal Ratio) Rules, 1940.

Short title and extent.

1. (1) These rules may be called the Bengal Services Recruitment (Communal Ratio) Rules, 1940.

(2) They shall apply to all salaried appointments made after the 17th March 1939 in the Provincial Services, Subordinate Services, offices and posts under the Crown in connection with the affairs of the Province of Bengal, except appointments to—

(a) posts recruited with non-Indian personnel,

(b) services and posts recruited for employment only in the Chittagong Hill Tracts and the district of Darjeeling,

(c) the personnel of the Eastern Frontier Rifles (Bengal Battalion),

(d) Launch establishments (non-clerical),

(e) the posts of Poddars,

(f) all posts (other than those of process servers) the initial pay of which does not exceed Rs. 15 or the maximum pay of which does not exceed Rs. 20,

(g) such other services and posts as may, from time to time, by general or special order, be exempted by the Provincial Government from the operation of these rules.

Rules not to apply to promotions.

2. (1) These rules do not extend to promotions, in the making of which the sole consideration shall continue to be merit, with due regard to seniority of service.

(2) The appointment of an officer holding a temporary post to a permanent post in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office, shall be treated as direct recruitment and not promotion for the purpose of these rules:

Provided that, subject to the requirements of these rules, persons employed in temporary posts should be given prior consideration for appointment in permanent posts.

Fractional quantities between Muslims and non-Muslims.

3. (1) In the application of these rules, fractional quantities below one-half shall be disregarded and fractional quantities above one-half shall be counted as "one" for the purpose of determining the number of vacancies to be filled by Muslims and non-Muslims.

(2) Where fractions of one-half occur, the benefit shall, where practicable, be given alternately to Muslims and non-Muslims.

Reservation for Muslims and non-Muslims.

4. (1) Of all vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment in any service, department or office or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply, 50 per cent. shall, until parity is reached, be reserved for Muslims, and 50 per cent. for non-Muslims:

Provided that in any such service, department or office, or branch of such service, department or office, in which vacancies are filled partly by promotion and partly by direct recruitment, the number of vacancies so reserved shall, until parity is reached, be increased or decreased, as the case may be, by one-half of the number of promotions of non-Muslims or Muslims, as the case may be, in excess of 50 per cent. of the total number of promotions in that service, department or office, or branch of that service, department or office.

(2) After parity has been reached, future recruitment to fill such vacancies shall be directed to the maintenance of parity between Muslims and non-Muslims.

Explanation 1.—When a service consists of different grades of officers, with a distinct scale of pay, each such grade shall be treated as a branch of the service, e.g., the Subordinate Police Service consists of Inspectors, Sub-Inspectors, Assistant Sub-Inspectors, Head Constables and Constables. Each such branch shall be treated as a separate unit for the purpose of these rules.

Explanation 2.—(1) Each department or office shall, for the purposes of these rules, be treated as consisting ordinarily of three main branches, namely, clerical (ordinary), clerical (special) and non-clerical.

(2) Where there are Upper and Lower Divisions of any department or office, each division shall, except for determining whether parity has been reached, be treated separately for the purposes of these rules.

Explanation 3.—(1) "Parity" means equality in the number of permanent posts in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office, between Muslims and non-Muslims, and shall be deemed to have been reached as soon as the number of Muslims therein is, as nearly as possible, 50 per cent. of the total permanent strength.

(2) In determining whether parity has been reached, the total number of permanent posts in the service, department or office, or branch of the service, department or office, shall be taken into consideration, whether the cadre consists of an Upper and Lower Division or not.

Illustration of counterbalance.—Ten vacancies in the Bengal Junior Civil Service are filled by promotion of 1 Muslim and 9 non-Muslims. Twenty vacancies in the Bengal Junior Civil Service are to be filled by direct recruitment. They will be filled by 8 non-Muslims and 12 Muslims, i.e., 10 Muslims on account of the 50 per cent. reservation, plus 2 Muslims which represents one-half of the excess of 9 (promotions of non-Muslims) over 5 (half the total number of promotion), provided parity in the Bengal Junior Civil Service has not been reached.

Application of counterbalance.

5. (1) The principle of counterbalance as enunciated in the proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 4 shall be applied to those services, departments or offices, or branches of those services, departments or offices in which vacancies are filled partly by promotion and partly by direct recruitment.

(2) The principle of counterbalance shall be applied only within the service, department or office, or branch of the service, department or office in which the promotions are made.

(3) The principle of counterbalance shall be applied only in case of permanent promotions from a lower to a higher service, or from a lower division or branch to a higher division or branch of the same service, department or office.

Procedure in certain cases of dismissal or discharge.

6. Where an officer appointed to a permanent post on probation is dismissed or discharged before confirmation on grounds of inefficiency or unsuitability, or where an officer appointed to a temporary post is dismissed or discharged on similar grounds, and the vacancy is filled by direct recruitment, such vacancy shall, notwithstanding the provisions of rule 4, be filled by a member of the same community as such officer, and no deduction shall be made on that account from the number of vacancies reserved to be filled by members of that community in subsequent appointments.

Reservation for Scheduled Castes.

7. (1) Of all vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply, 15 per cent. shall, if qualified candidates are available, be reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes:

Provided that the number of vacancies so reserved shall not exceed 30 per cent. of the total number of vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment of non-Muslims.

(2) The fractional vacancies, if any, which under the provisions of sub-rule (1) are to be filled by the members of the Scheduled Castes, shall accumulate, and one vacancy shall be reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes as soon as the fractional amount exceeds one-half, provided that each appointment shall count as "one" for the purpose of determining the next vacancy which is to be filled by a member of the Scheduled Castes.

In 10	ditto	ditto	3·00

Scheduled Castes will thus get the 2nd, 6th, 9th, 12th, 16th, etc., vacancies reserved for non-Muslims.

(3) Vacancies shall be reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes under sub-rules (1) and (2) until the number of Scheduled Castes equals 15 per cent. of the total number of permanent posts in the service, department or office, or branch of the service, department or office, whether the cadre consists of an Upper and Lower Division or not, and thereafter future recruitment shall be directed to the maintenance of this percentage.

Explanation.—For the purposes of these rules, the castes, races or tribes, or parts of or group within castes, races or tribes specified in Part III of the Schedule to the Government of India (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1936, shall be deemed to be Scheduled Castes, and no member of any caste, race or tribe not included in the said Part of that Schedule shall be appointed to fill any vacancy reserved under this rule for members of the Scheduled Castes.

Minority communities and backward classes.

8. In respect of vacancies to be filled in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office, to which these rules apply, by direct recruitment of non-Muslims, other than members of the Scheduled Castes, special attention shall, if qualified candidates are available, be paid to the interests of Anglo-Indians, Indian Christians, Buddhists, Hill Tribes of the Himalayas and foot hills, and of the Chittagong Hill Tracts and aboriginal tribes in general.

Direct recruitment by competitive examination.

9. Where direct recruitment is made by competitive examination in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply, the vacancies reserved shall be filled from amongst the qualified candidates of each community in the order of merit of such qualified candidates:

Provided that, if the qualified candidates of any community are insufficient in any year to fill all the posts reserved for that community, the vacancies left unfilled shall, without regard being had to the interest of any community, be filled in accordance with the result of the competitive examination by qualified candidates of other communities, in order of merit, and no deduction on that account shall be made from the vacancies reserved to be filled by competitive examination in that service, department or office, or branch of that service, department or office in subsequent years.

Explanation 1.—In this rule, "qualified candidate" means a candidate who has qualified at the competitive examination and possesses the other qualifications, if any, prescribed, or approved, for the appointment by the Provincial Government.

Explanation 2.—Direct recruitment is made by competitive examination when this is the recognised method of recruitment, and where qualification at such an examination is a condition precedent to, and is a qualification prescribed for, appointment.

Direct recruitment otherwise than by competitive examination.

10. Where direct recruitment is made otherwise than by competitive examination in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply, the appointing authority shall, if qualified candidates are available, secure that the vacancies reserved for each community are filled in accordance with these rules:

Provided that, if the qualified candidates of any community are insufficient in any year to fill all the vacancies reserved for that community, the vacancies left unfilled shall, without regard being had to the interest of any community, be filled by qualified candidates of other communities, in order of merit, as determined by the appointing authority and no deduction shall be made on that account from the vacancies reserved to be filled under this rule in that service, department or office, or branch of that service, department or office in subsequent years.

Explanation.—In this rule "qualified candidate" means a candidate who possesses the minimum academic qualifications and satisfies the other requirement prescribed, or approved, for the appointment by the Provincial Government.

Temporary posts.

11. Recruitment for temporary posts shall be made in accordance with these rules:

Provided that in the case of temporary appointments for a period exceeding or likely to exceed six months, where appointments are made according to the proviso to rule 7 or rule 8, a fresh attempt to secure qualified candidates of the community concerned shall be made at the end of three months from the date of appointment.

Inspection.

12. It shall be the duty of all officers at the time of inspection of the personnel of any service, or of any branch of any service, or inspection of any department or office, or branch of any department or office to which these rules apply to examine first and foremost the application of these rules, and to ascertain and report if the provisions of these rules have been observed.

Irregular orders of appointment to be cancelled.

13. Any appointment made contrary to the provisions of these rules shall, on being brought to the notice of the appointing authority, be cancelled by that authority.

Periodical returns.

14. (1) Every appointing authority shall, by the 10th day of April and 10th day of October in each year, submit to the Home (Appointment) Department of the Government of Bengal, either direct or through such authority as may be prescribed, a return for the half-year ending on the 31st March or 30th September, as the case may be, in the prescribed form.

(2) Where returns are submitted through any department or the head of any department or office, they shall be submitted in duplicate, and consolidated returns, together with one copy of the original returns, shall be submitted by such department or the head of such department or office to the Home (Appointment) Department by the 20th day of April or the 20th day of October, as the case may be, in each year.

In the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, returns shall be submitted through the channel previously prescribed for returns of employment of Muslims and members of the Scheduled Castes and other communities.

(3) Returns shall be submitted in respect of each service, department or office, or branch of each service, department or office. Age groups will be shown for Provincial Services only.
